Labor Hurls Warning At Moslem Unit

Demands Zones Be Set For European Settlers In Algeria

ALGIERS (AP)—Algeria's European labor unions warned today that unless autonomous zones are set up in western Algeria for the European population, it will call on the settlers to flee the country.

A communique from the Joint Committee of Labor Unions in Oran said the Moslem nationalist leaders must sign an agreement officially sanctioning the partitioning of the territory by June 30.

If not, the communique said, the committee will be forced to demand the immediate departure of the population to avoid genocide.

It was the second European ultimatum in Algiera in the past 12 hours. Tuesday night the Algiers command of the Secret Army Organization called for immediate incorporation of Europeans into the local Moslem security force to maintain order.

European settlers in western Algeria for some time have been demanding a regroupment of the population along ethnic lines. The secret army has been attempting to form defensive bastions in Oran, Sidi bel Abbes, Mostaganem, Arzew and Perregaux.

The Moslem Nationalists condemned the plan Tuesday. Nationalist Premier Youssef ben Khedda said Arab nations have pledged to help Algeria in dealing with "imperialists" attempting to carry out a partition.

The unions called for international solidarity in organizing a speedy evacuation of Europeans from Algeria in case the demands are not granted.

Jean-Jacques Susini Tuesday night gave the nationalists 48 hours in which to begin implementing the agreement he reached over the weekend with Dr. Chewki Mostefai, representative of the Moslem National Liberation Front (FLN) on the Algerian provisional executive.

"If time goes by without results, Algeria will again be reduced to chaos," Susini warned in a private radio broadcast.

Malfunction Of Thor Missile

U.S. Forced To Destroy Gigantic Nuclear Device

HONOLULU (AP) — The malfunction of a Thor missile forced the United States to destroy a gigantic nuclear device in flight near Johnston Island late Tuesday night without exploding it.

The abortive attempt to set off a nuclear device at high altitude above the Pacific test site was the second failure in two tries.

No specific explanation was given for the failure. Joint Task Force 8 said in its official statement that the shot was scrapped "due to a malfunction in the system."

The nuclear device was blown apart and dropped harmlessly into the ocean. There was no nuclear detonation.

It was assumed, however, that the term "the system" referred to trouble with the Thor's tracking system—the same problem that caused failure of the first Johnston test shot June 4.

Tuesday night's test was to have been the biggest and highest in the United States' current Pacific test series. The nuclear package was classified as megaton—plus in yield—more powerful than one million tons of TNT. Its power had been estimated unofficially at about 10 megatons.

Previous announcements said the detonation was to be at an altitude of hundreds of kilometers. Unofficially, estimates were 200 miles.

Arthur Sylvester, assistant secretary of defense for public affairs, announced the failure about 20 minutes after launch. He had returned hours earlier from Johnston Island.

Announcement of the failure followed a silence on radios monitoring the countdown. It said:

"A Thor booster was launched tonight at about 10:47 p.m. HST (4:47 a.m. EDT) carrying a nuclear device, designed for one of the high-altitude tests in the current U.S. test series from Johnston Island. Due to a malfunction in the system, the nuclear device was purposely destroyed without a nuclear detonation.

"The debris fell into the open sea well within the safety area which was previously designated. There was no danger to human life or hazardous levels of radioactivity in the ocean."

A JTF8 spokesman said it was not immediately known how long it will be before another shot will be held at Johnston.

The failure was a disappointment for thousands of Hawaiians who lined beaches and highlands, hoping to see the big shot.

The test was expected to have been visible in Hawaii, 750 miles northeast of Johnston Island.

The order to destroy the latest shot came shortly after the Thor blasted off from its launching pad on the Johnston Island shore.

Officials declined to pinpoint the area where the debris fell. The safety zone around Johnston extended 530 miles at sea level in all directions.

No Progress Reported In Paris Talk

French President Fails To Budge In Friendly Discussion

PARIS (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk today began a round of consultations with North Atlantic Treaty Organization military and political leaders after a meeting with French President Charles de Gaulle that made no real progress toward smoothing differences between France and the United States.

Rusk arrived in Paris on Tuesday for the first stop on a West European tour to shore up the unity of NATO. American sources said his initial talk with De Gaulle was animated, friendly and searching but that it didn't budge the French leader.

Rusk met first today with Gen. Lauris Norstad, NATO supreme commander, and then talked with Ambassador Thomas K. Finletter, the permanent U.S. representative of the 15-nation NATO Council.

There was no immediate indication of the substance of their talks. It was thought likely they briefly reviewed current NATO problems, including the issue of giving America's allies a greater share in deciding on when and how NATO's arsenal of American nuclear warheads might be used.

After his meetings with Norstad and Finletter, Rusk went to the sprawling NATO headquarters at the edge of Paris for talks with NATO Secretary-General Dirk U. Stikker and a session with the council.

U.S. sources said Rusk was meeting informally with the council and had no prepared statement or specific proposals to put before the group.

Later, Rusk was to return to his consultations with French leaders —the main purpose of his three-day trip to Paris. He had two meetings scheduled with Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville and was to call on Premier Georges Pompidou.

During his talks with Couve de Murville, Rusk was expected to deal more specifically with the issues he had taken up with De Gaulle.

Hamill Gets School Post In Hancock

Weir High Dean To Direct Physical Ed In Junior Buildings

Carl Hamill, dean of boys at Weir High School, was elevated to a newly - created post of supervisor of physical education and director of athletics for five junior high schools in the Hancock County school system by the Board of Education Tuesday night.

A teacher in the system since 1929, Hamill will receive a salary of $750 a month for 10 months, plus a travel allowance of 10 cents per mile in performing his duties.

His salary as dean at Weir High was $7,350 a year. Hamill's duties will be to "see that each boy on the junior high school level develops to his maximum physically, and to develop an educationally sound athletic program on the junior high level." Supt. Robert H. Hall said today.

The veteran Weirton teacher will supervise athletic programs at junior high schools in Chester, Newell and New Cumberland, and two in Weirton. He will begin his duties Sept. 1.

Supt. Hall said the board has eliminated positions of dean of men and dean of girls at Weir High School with the elevation of Hamill to the new post.

The board also opened and tabulated electrical bids for work on three new schools proposed for the county. Six bids were received and were turned over to Kellam & Foley of Columbus, architects, for study.

Supt. Hall said the board may take action on awarding contracts within the next week. Construction of new schools will be a $5,383,000 expansion project designed to meet growing enrollment.

The board had advertised for bids for electrical work earlier, but had received only one bid—from Guy Johnson Co. of Steu-

Child Injured Badly In Fall From Bicycle

A 7-year-old North Side girl is in "fair" condition today at Children's Hospital at Pittsburgh with a skull fracture and other injuries suffered when she fell from a bicycle while riding downhill in an alley near her home Tuesday night.

A second grade pupil at Lincoln School, she was treated at City Hospital then transferred to Pittsburgh.

Owen Warns Of Court Step If Necessary

Continuing a running argument that dates back to the City Council meeting on June 4, Safety-Service Director Robert Owen said today he will file actions for libel and slander against anyone "brave enough to name me personally" in accusations of improper official action.

The director made the statement today as an aftermath of a discussion in which he engaged Monday night with Councilman Frank Duffy, harking back to an argument between Owen and Duffy following the June 4 Council session. Duffy charged Monday night that Owen threatened to strike him in the heated discussion that followed the meeting two weeks ago.

"Words used at the previous Council meeting improperly implied 'collusion, sneaky business, buying a contract and kickbacks'," Owen said. He said the words were used in a discussion of the award of a contract to the Tri-State Asphalt Corp. for blacktopping the new municipal parking lot on the site of the former Ceramic Theater.

Owen said the words were used in a discussion of the contract that involved him, Duffy, Kenny Nichols of Hill Blvd., one of the unsuccessful bidders on the blacktop job, and Leroy Fotheringham of Gardendale, a regular spectator at Council meetings.

"It was my position not to concern Council with this business and take up their time," Owen said today. "Therefore, I talked after the meeting with two of the men who remained (Duffy and

U.S. Agents, Police Strike In 3 Cities To Break Up Ring

NEW YORK (AP)—Secret Service agents and police have struck here and in two other American cities in a swift attempt to crush a U.S.-Canadian ring specializing in counterfeit money orders.

Three Canadians and a Vermont man were arrested here Tuesday with what a Secret Service spokesman said was $17,500 in counterfeit Canadian Pacific Railway money orders.

The spokesman said $18,100 more in counterfeit drafts was taken from three Toronto men arrested by Secret Service agents and police in Detroit.

In Buffalo, N.Y., city police announced they were holding four Canadians who they said had nearly $9,000 in counterfeit money orders.

Tips from Toronto police resulted in the New York and Detroit arrests. The Secret Service spokesman said the organization is working closely with Canadian authorities to determine whether other members of the ring still are operating here or in Canada.

The men arrested in New York City were identified as Edward P. Callahan, 37, of Alburg, Vt.; and Gary Bell, 28, Barry G. Kirk, 38, and Shaun Bernard, 28, all of Montreal.

They were arraigned and held in $15,000 bail each for a hearing Friday on charges of passing counterfeit obligations of a foreign corporation.

Labor Chief Sees Hope In TWA Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg said early today there has been progress toward settling a dispute between the Flight Engineers Union and Trans World Airlines.

Goldberg gave the hopeful report as he recessed the marathon negotiations at the request of union officials who asked for a chance to confer with their local chapters.

He declined to reveal the reason for the union conferences but presumably the flight engineer representatives want to sound out members on the government's latest proposal for solving the wrangle over jobs in the cockpits of jet airliners.

Goldberg presented the proposal to the airline and Flight Engineers International Association Tuesday just at the 2 p.m. deadline the union had set to strike TWA's transcontinental and overseas operations.

The union postponed the strike but not in time to head off picketing at New York's Idlewild Airport and at TWA terminals at Kansas City and San Francisco. The pickets finally withdrew.

Few flights were reported delayed but a TWA spokesman in Kansas City said the airline suffered a substantial loss of business because of confusion over the strike situation.

Cause Of Wellsville Blaze Unknown But Inquiry Continues

The loss has been set at $20,000 in a fire which gutted the attic apartment and a major portion of the second floor of the Wellsville American Legion Post 70 home at 233 Wells Ave. Tuesday morning.

Fire Chief Robert Lewis set the loss at $10,000 to the building and the same amount to the contents. The cause of the blaze still is under investigation.

The roof of the large brick building was destroyed — about three-fourths of it collapsed — while heavy damage resulted to the second floor and extensive water damage was noted on the first floor.

Firemen received the first call at 9:35 a. m. The blaze was not brought under control until about 11 a. m. and was extinguished about an hour later. Firemen remained on the scene until 1 p. m. and went back later in the afternoon and evening to extinguish small blazes which broke out in the refuse.

This was the worst fire Wellsville has had in some time.

The firemen used two pumper trucks and the emergency equipment. Nine lines were laid. Three 2½-inch lines, three 1½-inch and three booster lines played water on the blaze.

Lewis commented the fire had a very good start before the department was notified. He said the blaze had started through the roof by the time the trucks arrived. It apparently had been burning for some time before it was discovered. Several persons remarked they had seen the smoke but thought the department already had been notified.

Firemen also were hampered by the four dormer areas in the point of the roof. This, along with

Plea Of Guilty Filed For City Tax Charges

Clarence E. Collins, 73, of 631 Dresden Ave. pleaded guilty today before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge he failed to file an estimate with the city income tax office before April 15, 1961, on his anticipated income for last year.

Judge Chertoff continued Collins' case for sentencing until June 27 at 9 a. m. and instructed him to file an estimate, meanwhile, with the tax department.

Collins was one of three against whom charges were filed April 6 by D. G. Wilkinson, head of the tax department. The other two cases were disposed of shortly afterward, but no action was taken in Collins' case because he was hospitalized.

A warrant was served on Collins Tuesday by Patrolmen William A. Devon and Orin C. Smith, police said.

After admitting the charge, Collins was asked by the judge why he failed to file an estimate.

"I ain't got no reason—it was neglect more than anything else," Collins replied. Then he said he "won't have any money until July 5," when his Social Security check is due.

Questioned by the judge, Wilkinson said Collins did not file an estimate of 1961 income, but the department was advised that he

Mayor's Plan Turned Down At Wellsville

Request To Vote On Post Office, Hall 'Filed' By Council

Wellsville City Council Tuesday night again turned a deaf ear to a request from Mayor William Daugherty that residents be given an opportunity to express themselves on construction of a combination Post Office and City Hall by placing the proposal on the ballot.

The matter was tabled at the last meeting and although the mayor was not present last night a letter was read from him asking Council to take action.

After it was read, Councilman Allen Baldwin immediately moved the letter be received and filed and the motion was seconded by Mrs. Kay Drago, councilman. The motion carried without remarks from any of the members.

The mayor commented in the letter two steps already have been taken which could prove beneficial to the city. He said the city should explore the possibility of incorporating a fallout shelter into the building, with this phase financed by the federal government.

He said it would be practical and is in keeping with the present national thinking. He also said that it is thought postal authori-

Tiros V Hunting Storms

New Satellite May Lead To U.S.-Red Space Ties

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —America's newest weather satellite, Tiros V, orbiting on its hurricane and storm hunting mission, may prove to be the first step toward a cooperative space program between the United States and the Soviet Union.

The weather watch satellite, launched Tuesday from Cape Canaveral, will photograph cloud cover over a much greater area of the world than any of the previous four Tiros satellites. Included is the sky above most of the Soviet Union.

During its anticipated four-month useful lifetime, Tiros V's two wide-angle cameras are expected to snap hundreds of pictures of weather systems over the U.S.S.R. A National Aeronautics and Space Administration official said the photographs will be available to Soviet meteorologists if they want them.

Presumably the Russians will ask for the pictures. Earlier this month, American and Soviet scientists signed a pact in Geneva agreeing to share data received from their respective weather satellites—with a long-range look at possibly building a broad mutual space research program.

The representatives of the two major space powers also discussed the possibility of coordinating tracking, launch dates and satellite objectives to reduce exploration overlaps. There was no provision for a common launching.

As yet, the Soviet Union has not launched a weather satellite. It reportedly is developing one, but it is not known whether it is similar to the Tiros system.

Temperatures May Go Below 50 Tonight

The cool spell, following weekend hot weather, will continue through tonight with a low of under 50 degrees possible.

The Ohio weatherman said the low will be 48 to 54 after a day's high of only 68 to 75. The overnight low this morning was 58 downtown.

No rain is in sight and Thursday will be fair with little temperature change.

Truman Takes Part

West Virginia Observes Its 99th Birthday Today

CHARLESTON (AP) — Former President Harry Truman helps West Virginia observe its 99th birthday this evening in a simple ceremony at the State Capitol.

The event is of significance because it also marks the beginning of a drive to collect $1 million to finance the state's centennial celebration next year.

Truman will be introduced by Sen. Jennings Randolph, D-W.Va., and is scheduled to make a 15-minute speech.

H. Ward Christopher, general chairman of the Centennial Funds Committee, will preside at the ceremony and introduce former Govs. Henry D. Hatfield, Homer A. Holt, Okey L. Patteson and Cecil H. Underwood, and Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va.

Gov. Barron will make a brief address.

Adding color to the ceremony is a 99-voice chorus and a 99-year-old man, Harmon S. Hamrick of Valley Head, Randolph County, who was born the same year West Virginia entered the Union.

Banks, state and county offices and state liquor stores were closed for the holiday.

While West Virginians throughout the state were celebrating the occasion, it also was being observed across the country. Today was West Virginia Day at the Seattle World's Fair and State Commerce Commissioner Hulett C. Smith represented Barron at the ceremonies.

The 100-piece All State Band was also on hand.

U.S. Hero, 3 Bonn Pilots Die In Crash

COLOGNE, Germany (AP)—An American flying hero and three West German air force pilots were killed Tuesday in the collision of four supersonic jet fighters.

The four planes, U.S.-built F104 Starfighters, were flying a tight, low-level formation in rehearsal for an air show when they collided and crashed about 10 miles southwest of Cologne.

An eyewitness said the planes were flying in box formation. The top pair collided and dropped onto the lower two. They were too low for the pilots to bail out.

The American victim was Capt. Jon G. Speer, 29, of Los Angeles, one of a group of U.S. Air Force instructors with the West German air force.

Speer was about to be awarded the Air Medal for landing another F104 safely two months ago after a lightning bolt had smashed the plane's nose and knocked out 90 per cent of its controls.

He had been cited for extraordinary flying skill displayed in one of the most unusual incidents in American aviation history.

Demands Zones Be Set For European Settlers In Algeria

ALGIERS (AP)—Algeria's European labor unions warned today that unless autonomous zones are set up in western Algeria for the European population, it will call on the settlers to flee the country.

A communique from the Joint Committee of Labor Unions in Oran said the Moslem nationalist leaders must sign an agreement officially sanctioning the partitioning of the territory by June 30.

It was the second European ultimatum in Algiera in the past 12 hours. Tuesday night the Algiers command of the Secret Army Organization called for immediate incorporation of Europeans into the local Moslem security force to maintain order.

European settlers in western Algeria for some time have been demanding a regroupment of the population along ethnic lines. The secret army has been attempting to form defensive bastions in Oran, Sidi bel Abbes, Mostaganem, Arzew and Perregaux.

Malfunction Of Thor Missile

U.S. Forced To Destroy Gigantic Nuclear Device

HONOLULU (AP) — The malfunction of a Thor missile forced the United States to destroy a gigantic nuclear device in flight near Johnston Island late Tuesday night without exploding it.

The abortive attempt to set off a nuclear device at high altitude above the Pacific test site was the second failure in two tries.

No specific explanation was given for the failure. Joint Task Force 8 said in its official statement that the shot was scrapped "due to a malfunction in the system."

The nuclear device was blown apart and dropped harmlessly into the ocean. There was no nuclear detonation.

It was assumed, however, that the term "the system" referred to trouble with the Thor's tracking system—the same problem that caused failure of the first Johnston test shot June 4.

Tuesday night's test was to have been the biggest and highest in the United States' current Pacific test series. The nuclear package was classified as megaton—plus in yield—more powerful than one million tons of TNT. Its power had been estimated unofficially at about 10 megatons.

Previous announcements said the detonation was to be at an altitude of hundreds of kilometers. Unofficially, estimates were 200 miles.

Arthur Sylvester, assistant secretary of defense for public affairs, announced the failure about 20 minutes after launch. He had returned hours earlier from Johnston Island.

Announcement of the failure followed a silence on radios monitoring the countdown. It said:

"A Thor booster was launched tonight at about 10:47 p.m. HST (4:47 a.m. EDT) carrying a nuclear device, designed for one of the high-altitude tests in the current U.S. test series from Johnston Island. Due to a malfunction in the system, the nuclear device was purposely destroyed without a nuclear detonation.

"The debris fell into the open sea well within the safety area which was previously designated. There was no danger to human life or hazardous levels of radioactivity in the ocean."

A JTF8 spokesman said it was not immediately known how long it will be before another shot will be held at Johnston.

The failure was a disappointment for thousands of Hawaiians who lined beaches and highlands, hoping to see the big shot.

The test was expected to have been visible in Hawaii, 750 miles northeast of Johnston Island.

The order to destroy the latest shot came shortly after the Thor blasted off from its launching pad on the Johnston Island shore.

Officials declined to pinpoint the area where the debris fell. The safety zone around Johnston extended 530 miles at sea level in all directions.

No Progress Reported In Paris Talk

French President Fails To Budge In Friendly Discussion

PARIS (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk today began a round of consultations with North Atlantic Treaty Organization military and political leaders after a meeting with French President Charles de Gaulle that made no real progress toward smoothing differences between France and the United States.

Rusk arrived in Paris on Tuesday for the first stop on a West European tour to shore up the unity of NATO. American sources said his initial talk with De Gaulle was animated, friendly and searching but that it didn't budge the French leader.

Rusk met first today with Gen. Lauris Norstad, NATO supreme commander, and then talked with Ambassador Thomas K. Finletter, the permanent U.S. representative of the 15-nation NATO Council.

There was no immediate indication of the substance of their talks. It was thought likely they briefly reviewed current NATO problems, including the issue of giving America's allies a greater share in deciding on when and how NATO's arsenal of American nuclear warheads might be used.

After his meetings with Norstad and Finletter, Rusk went to the sprawling NATO headquarters at the edge of Paris for talks with NATO Secretary-General Dirk U. Stikker and a session with the council.

U.S. sources said Rusk was meeting informally with the council and had no prepared statement or specific proposals to put before the group.

Later, Rusk was to return to his consultations with French leaders —the main purpose of his three-day trip to Paris. He had two meetings scheduled with Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville and was to call on Premier Georges Pompidou.

During his talks with Couve de Murville, Rusk was expected to deal more specifically with the issues he had taken up with De Gaulle.

U.S. opposition to De Gaulle's plan to give his armies their own atomic arsenal was one of the main points discussed by Rusk and the French president for an hour and a quarter Tuesday in the Elysee Palace.

This was the worst fire Wellsville has had in some time.

The firemen used two pumper trucks and the emergency equipment. Nine lines were laid. Three 2½-inch lines, three 1½-inch and three booster lines played water on the blaze.

Lewis commented the fire had a very good start before the department was notified. He said the blaze had started through the roof by the time the trucks arrived. It apparently had been burning for some time before it was discovered. Several persons remarked they had seen the smoke but thought the department already had been notified.

Firemen also were hampered by the four dormer areas in the point of the roof. This, along with

Plea Of Guilty Filed For City Tax Charges

Clarence E. Collins, 73, of 631 Dresden Ave. pleaded guilty today before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge he failed to file an estimate with the city income tax office before April 15, 1961, on his anticipated income for last year.

Judge Chertoff continued Collins' case for sentencing until June 27 at 9 a. m. and instructed him to file an estimate, meanwhile, with the tax department.

Collins was one of three against whom charges were filed April 6 by D. G. Wilkinson, head of the tax department. The other two cases were disposed of shortly afterward, but no action was taken in Collins' case because he was hospitalized.

A warrant was served on Collins Tuesday by Patrolmen William A. Devon and Orin C. Smith, police said.

After admitting the charge, Collins was asked by the judge why he failed to file an estimate.

"I ain't got no reason—it was neglect more than anything else," Collins replied. Then he said he "won't have any money until July 5," when his Social Security check is due.

Questioned by the judge, Wilkinson said Collins did not file an estimate of 1961 income, but the department was advised that he

Mayor's Plan Turned Down At Wellsville

Request To Vote On Post Office, Hall 'Filed' By Council

Wellsville City Council Tuesday night again turned a deaf ear to a request from Mayor William Daugherty that residents be given an opportunity to express themselves on construction of a combination Post Office and City Hall by placing the proposal on the ballot.

The matter was tabled at the last meeting and although the mayor was not present last night a letter was read from him asking Council to take action.

After it was read, Councilman Allen Baldwin immediately moved the letter be received and filed and the motion was seconded by Mrs. Kay Drago, councilman. The motion carried without remarks from any of the members.

The mayor commented in the letter two steps already have been taken which could prove beneficial to the city. He said the city should explore the possibility of incorporating a fallout shelter into the building, with this phase financed by the federal government.

He said it would be practical and is in keeping with the present national thinking. He also said that it is thought postal authori-

U.S. Hero, 3 Bonn Pilots Die In Crash

COLOGNE, Germany (AP)—An American flying hero and three West German air force pilots were killed Tuesday in the collision of four supersonic jet fighters.

The four planes, U.S.-built F104 Starfighters, were flying a tight, low-level formation in rehearsal for an air show when they collided and crashed about 10 miles southwest of Cologne.

An eyewitness said the planes were flying in box formation. The top pair collided and dropped onto the lower two. They were too low for the pilots to bail out.

The American victim was Capt. Jon G. Speer, 29, of Los Angeles, one of a group of U.S. Air Force instructors with the West German air force.

Speer was about to be awarded the Air Medal for landing another F104 safely two months ago after a lightning bolt had smashed the plane's nose and knocked out 90 per cent of its controls.

He had been cited for extraordinary flying skill displayed in one of the most unusual incidents in American aviation history.

Child Injured Badly In Fall From Bicycle

A 7-year-old North Side girl is in "fair" condition today at Children's Hospital at Pittsburgh with a skull fracture and other injuries suffered when she fell from a bicycle while riding downhill in an alley near her home Tuesday night.

Cynthia Manypenny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Manypenny, 1707 Wooster Ave., received a laceration of the scalp, skull fracture and abrasions of the left arm, stomach and thighs when her bike apparently hit a stone in the cinder roadway.

A second grade pupil at Lincoln School, she was treated at City Hospital then transferred to Pittsburgh.

Tiros V Hunting Storms

New Satellite May Lead To U.S.-Red Space Ties

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —America's newest weather satellite, Tiros V, orbiting on its hurricane and storm hunting mission, may prove to be the first step toward a cooperative space program between the United States and the Soviet Union.

The weather watch satellite, launched Tuesday from Cape Canaveral, will photograph cloud cover over a much greater area of the world than any of the previous four Tiros satellites. Included is the sky above most of the Soviet Union.

During its anticipated four-month useful lifetime, Tiros V's two wide-angle cameras are expected to snap hundreds of pictures of weather systems over the U.S.S.R. A National Aeronautics and Space Administration official said the photographs will be available to Soviet meteorologists if they want them.

Presumably the Russians will ask for the pictures. Earlier this month, American and Soviet scientists signed a pact in Geneva agreeing to share data received from their respective weather satillites—with a long-range look at possibly building a broad mutual space research program.

The representatives of the two major space powers also discussed the possibility of coordinating tracking, launch dates and satellite objectives to reduce exploration overlaps. There was no provision for a common launching.

As yet, the Soviet Union has not launched a weather satellite. It reportedly is developing one, but it is not known whether it is similar to the Tiros system.

Temperatures May Go Below 50 Tonight

The cool spell, following weekend hot weather, will continue through tonight with a low of under 50 degrees possible.

The Ohio weatherman said the low will be 48 to 54 after a day's high of only 68 to 75. The overnight low this morning was 58 downtown.

No rain is in sight and Thursday will be fair with little temperature change.

Truman Takes Part

West Virginia Observes Its 99th Birthday Today

CHARLESTON (AP) — Former President Harry Truman helps West Virginia observe its 99th birthday this evening in a simple ceremony at the State Capitol.

The event is of significance because it also marks the beginning of a drive to collect $1 million to finance the state's centennial celebration next year.

Truman will be introduced by Sen. Jennings Randolph, D-W.Va., and is scheduled to make a 15-minute speech.

H. Ward Christopher, general chairman of the Centennial Funds Committee, will preside at the ceremony and introduce former Govs. Henry D. Hatfield, Homer A. Holt, Okey L. Patteson and Cecil H. Underwood, and Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va.

Gov. Barron will make a brief address.

Adding color to the ceremony is a 99-voice chorus and a 99-year-old man, Harmon S. Hamrick of Valley Head, Randolph County, who was born the same year West Virginia entered the Union.

Banks, state and county offices and state liquor stores were closed for the holiday.

While West Virginians throughout the state were celebrating the occasion, it also was being observed across the country. Today was West Virginia Day at the Seattle World's Fair and State Commerce Commissioner Hulett C. Smith represented Barron at the ceremonies.

The 100-piece All State Band was also on hand.

Ohio Power Begins Work On Facility At Klondyke

Work has started on construction of a new $356,500 substation in Klondyke as part of a major Ohio Power Co. transmission expansion in the state line area.

The new facility will be located on Bushwick St., directly across from the company's present State Line Substation.

William E. Williams, district manager for the utility, said it will contain a control building, a transformer that will step down voltage from 138,000 volts to 69,000 volts, three 69,000-volt oil circuit breakers and associated switching and electrical equipment.

Contractors for the project are W. G. Fairfield Construction Co. of Lancaster, for grading and equipment foundations; Marson Construction Co. of Cambridge City, Ind., which will erect the control building, and N. G. Gilbert Corp. of Muncie, Ind., electrical work.

The substation is part of $906,500 project designed to provide the entire East Liverpool - Wellsville region with another principal source of electric power, Williams said. The project includes facilities to be installed by three electric utility companies — Ohio Power, Wheeling Electric Co. and Monongahela Power Co.

In addition to the new substation, Ohio Power will install facilities which will permit a new 138,000-volt transmission line to cross the Ohio River at the Tidd Plant at Brilliant and at East Liverpool. A new 138,000-volt oil circuit breaker will be added to the Tidd Plant Substation at a cost of approximately $119,500.

After crossing the river at the Tidd Plant, the new 138,000-volt line turns north and moves toward East Liverpool on the West Virginia side. At a point across from the new East Liverpool substation, the line will cross the river again.

In interconnection agreement with Monongahela Power has been developed which includes the transfer of electric power from Tidd to East Liverpool, the construction of another 138,000-volt line from Tidd to Weirton and erection of other power lines.

Ohio Power's investment in the lines will be about $86,900 and Wheeling Electric will invest $343,600.

The entire $906,500 project is expected to be complete by the end of the year.

Williams said the new substation and lines are being built not only to furnish the East Liverpool and Wellsville areas another major source of electric power but to provide for anticipated future growth in the region.

"Ohio Power attempts to keep well ahead of the ever-increasing demand for electric energy and its investment in these new facilities is an indication of its faith in the future progress and prosperity of the area," he said.

Another Year, Another Menace

What a difference a year makes. Just 12 months ago most Americans were worried about war prospects and the Communist menace. It was the time of Premier Khrushchev's heated remarks over Berlin as he warmed up the cold war.

At that time the Soviet leader enjoyed the enviable position of issuing threatening statements and seeing them splashed across the front pages of every newspaper in the world. And at the time most of the world shuddered when he rumbled.

He was the big threat as he announced in June 1961 that a peace treaty would be signed with Germany by the end of the year and the headline blared "Stepup in Cold War."

BUT NOW the concern is not with Khrushchev but with the nation's economy and the slumping stock market.

What has happened to the Communist menace?

According to a survey conducted by U.S. News & World Report of several average American cities, Khrushchev has been described as a windbag, a big bluff and a blowhard.

Those queried said that the Russian leader has attempted so many scares that this tactic fails to carry any weight now. Many seem to think the Communist threat has run its course, that it has reached its high peak and now must fight for survival within its own ranks.

Even Khrushchev has changed his story in the last 12 months. This week in a speech to Romanian workers he said, "We do not give any deadline on settling the Berlin issue."

He did add, "I am convinced that tomorrow the Red flag will fly over the United States. But we will not fly the flag. It will be the American people themselves."

It must be admitted that his form of government could solve one of America's most perplexing problems—that of surplus food. His Red bloc nations can boast of never being plagued with an overabundance in the agriculture department.

SO THIS nation puts to rest, at least to some extent, the cold war fears only to be troubled about the nation's economic picture.

Businessmen complain about the anti-business attitude of the Kennedy administration and President Kennedy complains that business must cooperate more with the government to increase our national output. And right in the middle of this hassle is the workingman whose purchasing power is really the key to the whole economic structure.

Once the economic problem is ironed out and profits are no longer squeezed and the government doesn't take such a big bite out of the hand that feeds it, there is bound to be another menace or bogeyman to harass the public.

It would seem that only cows are supposed to be contented.

Political Confusion All Over

The outcome of the Canadian elections coincided with advance predictions: Incumbent Conservatives lost a lot of seats in Parliament but not enough to dismount them from the driver's seat. One of two minor groups, the Social Credit party, made enough gains it probably will have to be counted in on a coalition government.

Despite the strenuous campaigns conducted by the major party leaders and the advance publicity afforded it by both the Canadian and U.S. press, the election in retrospect seems a pretty lackluster affair. Canadian voters appear confused and the parallels between their politics and the politics on this side of the border are striking.

THE LIBERAL "outs" charged the country had suffered economic setbacks at home and loss of prestige abroad. The Conservative "ins" claimed they were responsible for great advancements in the last five years and promised good things for the future.

The central issues of the campaign revolved on the state of the economy and government fiscal policies. The outs said the ins had, in effect, confessed failure; the ins said the opposite was true.

A Montreal newspaper summed up the debate by declaring the two major parties espoused common goals but emphasized slightly different methods of approach: The Liberals would move moderately to the left and the Conservatives would move moderately to the right.

In the face of this undramatic, virtually invisible distinction, the voters were largely apathetic about the whole thing, seeing little opportunity to make a choice that would bring much change to their situation. The strength of the showing by the minor parties is a manifestation of this protest against frustration.

THE CONSERVATIVES, with sails severely trimmed, are expected to steer a non-controversial course over the choppy waters for the next year or so and then "go to the country" for a stronger vote of confidence in their policies.

The procedure for accomplishing this differs from the political system used in the United States, but President Kennedy hopes to accomplish the same thing in the congressional elections this fall. Although his party holds a nominal majority on Capitol Hill, he needs more aggressive support for his proposals among its members if he is to succeed in accomplishing what he says he wants.

He has one advantage over the Canadian prime minister: He doesn't have to risk his own job in "going to the country" for stronger congressional backing.

Whether U.S. voters have any clearer concept of their political direction than the Canadians did is perhaps the primary issue in our own November elections.

Fast Action On Apportionment

When the U.S. Supreme Court ruled last March that federal courts have a right and duty to act as arbiters in disputes over apportionment of seats in state legislatures, the decision was widely recognized as perhaps the high court's most far-reaching judgment since the 1954 ruling against school segregaion.

What few observers expected was the speed with which the ruling would be put to use across the land. There were, indeed, an abundance of predictions that it would be a long time before any tangible results of the decision would appear.

But already, less than three months after its original decision in a Tennessee case, the Supreme Court has agreed to review a followup suit involving the notorious county-unit voting system that has plagued Georgia's city citizens for years. The Georgia suit was filed the same day the Supreme Court handed down its Tennessee decision.

And that is only one case. Disgruntled urban voters in more than 30 states have taken action, either in the courts or through direct political pressure, to force their legislatures to change their appoirtionment systems.

No clear guidelines have been set yet, and numerous judicial decisions probably will be required to establish them. Specific situations and systems vary from state to state; the unfairness of city representation in some of them may be more imagined than real.

And there is no absolute rule in American democracy governing fair representation. The debate on the subject which threatened to sabotage the work of the Constitution's drafters in 1787 has continued to plague both professional and amateur political scientists ever since.

But there is no doubt now that changes will be made and quickly. Seldom has a decision by the highest court in the land reverberated to the grass roots of our political life so rapidly or so forcefully.

Cole Porter Revival

By Joseph Morgenstern

It is almost as impossible for an American to imagine a time when the world was without Cole Porter songs as it is for a Frenchman to imagine and concede that the composer of "I Love Paris" is an American.

Although there has been no lack of appreciation for the prolific gentleman and the 500-odd songs he has written in the last 35 years, the danger of appreciation is that when it gets too appreciative it slides beyond that to the sloppy.

Mr. Porter is in no need of sloppiness, which has always been anathema to him in his work. He is comfortably established on the 33rd floor of the Waldorf Towers, a far cry and a long elevator ride from his "Down in the Depths on the 19th Floor," one of the most archly sophisticated ever written by the man who has epitomized sophistication

Mr. Porter didn't write "Over There", wasn't associted with "Tobacco Road," "The Threepenny Opera," or "Abie's Irish Rose," and is believed not to have provided the music for "Pal Joey," "Show Boat," "Oklahoma" or "My Fair Lady." Aside from those and certain other exceptions, he has concocted as many memorable evenings in the theater with his enduring songs as any single man has a right to.

He has journeyed to the South Seas in search of tunes which were in his head all the time.

He has dashed off his intricate music and his deadly accurate lyrics, usually beginning with the title and last line and then proceeding to the intervening passages, while sailing on the Rhine, shaving in the Berkshires, drinking ice water in the Aegean and prtending to listen to dullards at dinner parties in all the capitals of the Western World.

He has derived inspiration from dancers in Marragech, from producers in Manhattan and, mainly, from his cortical treasure trove of melodies that owe fealty to no tradition but his own.

At the moment New York is in the throes of a Cole Porter revival, even though Mr. Porter has not written a new musical since "Silk Stockings" in 1955. "Can Can," his Francophile extravaganza from 1953, returned recently to the City Center, and "Anything Goes," a 1934 spoof of the gangster set is back in a stylish off-Broadway production at the Orpheum.

Mr. Porter said last week that his favorite brainchild has been "Kiss Me Kate," which opened in 1949 and fairly cries out for revival. His least favorite show, he said, is his earliest, "See America First," which was an unqualified failure in 1916. When will a new Porter score be along? He said he simply doesn't know.

The New Look In The White House

Hatters Toss Kennedy Into Ring

By Victor Riesel

Bob Kennedy heard a cheering crowd the other day nominate him to run for President of the United States in 1968. It was the first such public demonstration. The shouting swelled as the words were spoken by the leader of those gathered. It was a labor convention, so the nomination is still unofficial.

Victor Riesel

But it was the convention of the militantly liberal Hatters' Union, maker of policy in the highest echelon of labor. The nomination came from Alex Rose, in good humor, but in deadly political earnest.

After Bob Kennedy left the hall, Rose, who I'm certain will take no insult if I describe him as a latter - day Jim Farley (neither will Jim), told this columnist — "Certainly I meant it. If this nation wants to continue the kind of administration in '68 we now have under John Kennedy, the country will have to turn to his brother who is so closely identified with everything the President stands for."

FROM THE MOMENT the attorney general strode into the Statler - Hilton convention hall here, it was obvious "Bob" felt at home, and it was just as plain that he was amongst political partners and friends.

Since early '59, Alex Rose and his people had run interference for John Kennedy, bringing him closer to the New York labor leaders, introducing him to New York liberalism, breaking down the frustrated political love for Adlai Stevenson.

Now it is Robert's turn. Nor is he displeased at all.

Quickly he endeared himself to the delegates. And with a gay story. He said he had just flown in from Washington. On the plane a Massachusetts businessman, the attorney general said, had approached him.

"I don't trust your brother," said the businessman to the attorney general.

"My brother, the President?" queried Bob.

"No, your brother Ted," was the reply. "And furthermore, you're all taking too much advice from Arthur."

"Arthur Schlesinger?" asked Bob.

"No, Arthur Goldberg," was the reply. "And you should take more advice from Rose."

THEN CAME the attorney general's serious remarks on international affairs.

Who is Alex Rose? He is more than the leader of the Hatters, more than the leader of the New York State Liberal party. To insiders he is a labor leaders' labor leader, the politicians' politico, and so much an inner strategist in the labor - Liberal-Democratic coalition that he has sweated through many a tactical crisis with President Kennedy's personal poll taker, Lou Harris.

It was Rose's skillful political-footwork as well as the 400,000 margin of victory Liberal party votes in New York state which helped handsomely to win for John Kennedy.

It is the Liberal party, which Rose guides, that sets major policy in much of the Democratic party ranks, much of politicalized labor in and out of the state.

THEREFORE, I take quite seriously what Rose chooses to put on the record! Here, then, is specifically what he said, first on the platform and later in private conversations with this reporter:

"Bob Kennedy may need a hat one day to throw into the ring." Later Rose asserted, after urging the A. G. to wear a head covering. "After all, we had Franklin Roosevelt for 16 years, we may want 16 years of Kennedy."

In our private conversations, Rose said:

"Of course there's a Constitutional amendment against more than two terms. But eight years of John and then eight years of Bob — eight times two — that gives us 16 years of Kennedys."

I said something about this being a long way off.

"While this sounds," said Rose, "like a platform compliment to a guest speaker today, it sure can be a reality in the future. In eight years this country will be addicted to the Kennedy name.

"Bob Kennedy will have such an energetic image and impact on the country that we feel he will make a fine president.

"Our convention has tremendous political repercussions. Our union represents the typical liberal labor unions. We may influence a whole body of votes in New York State first, and then nationally. Now we're on record."

Bob Kennedy, after hearing Rose's "nominating speech," grinned and said he'd better listen to the other Rose, his mother. But he did not say that the gracious lady believes she did not raise her other boy to be a president.

Republican Lethargy

By David Lawrence

Party Seen Failing Opposition Duties

There is something missing on the national scene. There's a noticeable absence of militancy on the part of most of the Republicans. They are not exactly acquiescing in what the Kennedy administration is doing, but they certainly are not giving the country the vigorous criticism expected from the "loyal opposition" party.

David Lawrence

It's true that two weeks ago the Republican membership of the Senate and House issued "a declaration of Republican principle and policy," but it hasn't awakened in the electorate throughout the country any crusading enthusiasm.

Maybe it's because the statement was phrased in a lot of high falutin' words and didn't get down to brass tacks. What the voters like to hear is something direct and simple that they can understand. They want to know when things are going to get better and who is going to make them better. They might even be persuaded to believe that the Republican party is the party of "good business" and that the Democratic party is the party of "bad business" — if somebody of prominence in every congressional district could explain that to them in understandable terms and phrases.

The Republicsn statement of a fortnight ago started out by defining as "the great issue of 1962" this question: "Which party acts more effectively to preserve and enlarge human freedom?"

This, in itself, is a very abstract query. The statement might better have said flatly that the real issue is: "Which party gives you a chance to earn more money and keep more money — and which party gives you assurance that you'll continue to have your job and that there will be a job for your boy when he gets out of school?"

Instead, the Republicans described the main issue in four sentences of their declaration of principle as follows:

"The current administration has shown little understanding of, or concern for, institutions that buttress freedom at home — separation of powers, checks and balances, state and local responsibility, and a free competitive economy.

"It has demonstrated neither the wit nor the will to meet effectively the assault of international communism on freedom.

"We Republicans cannot witness the erosion of freedom without warning or protest. We propose a new direction for public policy in order to advance the cause of freedom at home and throughout the world."

THIS MAY all be very sound, but it's hardly concrete enough for the perplexed voters to grasp.

The statement, moreover, declared that Republican philosophy "rests on the doctrines that the individual has a God-given dignity and that government exists to serve him" and that "government should do for people only the things they cannot do for themselves."

This reads well enough for those who are familiar with the debate between the exponents of centralized power and the believers in less meddling by government. But it doesn't tell the average man what a growing dictatorship in government means to his everyday life and his future.

It doesn't tell him that, since the days of our forefathers, the threat of an all-powerful government and a police state has been hanging over this republic and has to be constantly fought as it rears its head each time an emergency arises in the economic life of the country.

The trouble with the Republicans is that lately they have not been aggressive in politics. They are too restrained. They like to get everybody to agree on generalities.

The difficulty with statements of principle is that, after everybody puts in his two cents' worth at the party conferences, the result is a namby - pamby utterance which doesn't arouse the voters to get into the fight and to enlist their friends and neighbors, too.

THERE IS only one issue on the domestic front that counts. It's based on the pocketbook. Things are not going well nowadays.

The stock market drop reflects a widespread uneasiness about the man at the wheel in the White House. He himself isn't up for re-election this year but if more radicals and more rubber - stamp representatives and senators are elected this November, the coalition of non-socialists from the North and South, which in the last 15 years has saved America from state socialism, will be weakened and perhaps rendered powerless to stem the tide. Business then would get worse, and unemployment would rise.

The real issue of 1962 is whether private business is going to be permitted to function naturally and to expand normally, or whether government is going to try to run everything.

The Republicans can, in the 1962 campaign, draw this line clearly. The people can come to understand the effects on their wages, their salaries, their savings and their opportunities to move ahead toward a better life.

The people don't understand "sophisticated" ideas, but they do understand dollars and cents and the worries that come with recessions and depressions.

Twain Closing Gap

By Tom Lambert

East is East and West is West as Kipling said and never the twain shall meet.

But American combat forces now in Thailand, and this country's affable people, certainly seem to be trying to push the twain a little closer together.

This joint effort shows in a variety of ways, including the following:

The U.S. Army jeep moved sedately along the outskirts of Khorat the other day, the driver lifting an occasional wondering eyebrow at his passenger, who had accepted an offer of rice, but was saying nothing to him.

A Thai police officer in a small village in the forested plain south of here gaped in surprise one evening at dusk as a patrolling Army platoon pushed into sight. Recovering, the policeman greeted the troops and proffered a choice of fruit.

Taxicab drivers, whose first middle and last names can run into a total of 25 pronunciation-resistant letters are now introducing themselves as "Sam" or "Joe" even while smilingly attempting to hike the fare.

Especially around U.S. military camps, Thais have surged forward with smiles, deals and requests and have found ready American response.

Americans had not completed building the headquarters camp here before Thais set up seven soft-drink, fruit and other stands outside the main gate and were doing a roaring business.

An Army combat medical team halted recently between two villages whose combined population of 80 had been invited earlier to bring in their sick. Before nightfall the medics had treated 250 Thais, most of whom had heard of the medical offer by bamboo telegraph and had walked through rice paddies or mountain forests to line up for penicillin shots for infections or vitamins for dietary deficiencies.

As a score of GI's stood open-mouthed around a Thai farmer who had noosed an eight-foot python, he offered to give or sell it to them.

Although the American move into Thailand is presumably of limited duration, it is beginning to take on a qualifiedly longer-term look.

The headquarters camp has been classified as "semi-permanent" and presumably soon will have floors and screens for its tents. A 100-bed Army field hospital has been set up under command of Lt. Col. Willard R. Warren of Cooperstown, N.Y. A first detachment of 10 Army nurses—six female and four male—has arrived led by Maj. Margaret Maher of Highland Falls, N.Y.

The ranking supply officer said the Army intends to establish 30 days supply of everything from bullets to beans in Thailand and maintain that level with shipments from Okinawa, Hawaii, the Philippines and the United States. None of the Americans here seem to know how long they are expected to stay.

"Thais feel more secure with Americans here," said a Bankok newspaperman, commenting on the political implications of the United States move into this country. "GI's mean more business, many sales of silk, jewelry and other things", said a beaming Bangkok shopkeeper.

Bighorn Sheep

The facts about bighorn sheep are as strange as the legends they have inspired.

Bighorn rams batter one another mercilessly with their huge, curling horns. The mountain sheep bound gracefully up and down steep cliffs that offer no obvious footholds. They survive long periods without water.

More than a million bighorns lived in prehistoric North America, the National Geographic Society estimates. Today fewer than 20,000 range from western Canada to Mexico.

Ralph E. Welles, a naturalist with the National Park Service, and his wife Florence recently published a study of a herd of desert bighorn that inhabits the mountains rimming Death Valley.

After seven years of intensive field research, the couple concluded that the celebrated butting matches of rams are probably rituals, not serious fights for possession of mates. The bouts apparently fulfill some deep urge in the mating season, but do not directly concern the ewes.

Another Year, Another Menace

What a difference a year makes. Just 12 months ago most Americans were worried about war prospects and the Communist menace. It was the time of Premier Khrushchev's heated remarks over Berlin as he warmed up the cold war.

At that time the Soviet leader enjoyed the enviable position of issuing threatening statements and seeing them splashed across the front pages of every newspaper in the world. And at the time most of the world shuddered when he rumbled.

He was the big threat as he announced in June 1961 that a peace treaty would be signed with Germany by the end of the year and the headline blared "Stepup in Cold War."

BUT NOW the concern is not with Khrushchev but with the nation's economy and the slumping stock market.

What has happened to the Communist menace?

According to a survey conducted by U.S. News & World Report of several average American cities, Khrushchev has been described as a windbag, a big bluff and a blowhard.

Those queried said that the Russian leader has attempted so many scares that this tactic fails to carry any weight now. Many seem to think the Communist threat has run its course, that it has reached its high peak and now must fight for survival within its own ranks.

Even Khrushchev has changed his story in the last 12 months. This week in a speech to Romanian workers he said, "We do not give any deadline on settling the Berlin issue."

He did add, "I am convinced that tomorrow the Red flag will fly over the United States. But we will not fly the flag. It will be the American people themselves."

It must be admitted that his form of government could solve one of America's most perplexing problems—that of surplus food. His Red bloc nations can boast of never being plagued with an overabundance in the agriculture department.

SO THIS nation puts to rest, at least to some extent, the cold war fears only to be troubled about the nation's economic picture.

Businessmen complain about the anti-business attitude of the Kennedy administration and President Kennedy complains that business must cooperate more with the government to increase our national output. And right in the middle of this hassle is the workingman whose purchasing power is really the key to the whole economic structure.

Once the economic problem is ironed out and profits are no longer squeezed and the government doesn't take such a big bite out of the hand that feeds it, there is bound to be another menace or bogeyman to harass the public.

"While this sounds," said Rose, "like a platform compliment to a guest speaker today, it sure can be a reality in the future. In eight years this country will be addicted to the Kennedy name.

"Bob Kennedy will have such an energetic image and impact on the country that we feel he will make a fine president.

"Our convention has tremendous political repercussions. Our union represents the typical liberal labor unions. We may influence a whole body of votes in New York State first, and then nationally. Now we're on record."

Bob Kennedy, after hearing Rose's "nominating speech," grinned and said he'd better listen to the other Rose, his mother. But he did not say that the gracious lady believes she did not raise her other boy to be a president.

Republican Lethargy

By David Lawrence

Party Seen Failing Opposition Duties

There is something missing on the national scene. There's a noticeable absence of militancy on the part of most of the Republicans. They are not exactly acquiescing in what the Kennedy administration is doing, but they certainly are not giving the country the vigorous criticism expected from the "loyal opposition" party.

David Lawrence

It's true that two weeks ago the Republican membership of the Senate and House issued "a declaration of Republican principle and policy," but it hasn't awakened in the electorate throughout the country any crusading enthusiasm.

Maybe it's because the statement was phrased in a lot of high falutin' words and didn't get down to brass tacks. What the voters like to hear is something direct and simple that they can understand. They want to know when things are going to get better and who is going to make them better. They might even be persuaded to believe that the Republican party is the party of "good business" and that the Democratic party is the party of "bad business" — if somebody of prominence in every congressional district could explain that to them in understandable terms and phrases.

The Republicsn statement of a fortnight ago started out by defining as "the great issue of 1962" this question: "Which party acts more effectively to preserve and enlarge human freedom?"

This, in itself, is a very abstract query. The statement might better have said flatly that the real issue is: "Which party gives you a chance to earn more money and keep more money — and which party gives you assurance that you'll continue to have your job and that there will be a job for your boy when he gets out of school?"

Instead, the Republicans described the main issue in four sentences of their declaration of principle as follows:

"The current administration has shown little understanding of, or concern for, institutions that buttress freedom at home — separation of powers, checks and balances, state and local responsibility, and a free competitive economy.

"It has demonstrated neither the wit nor the will to meet effectively the assault of international communism on freedom.

"We Republicans cannot witness the erosion of freedom without warning or protest. We propose a new direction for public policy in order to advance the cause of freedom at home and throughout the world."

THIS MAY all be very sound, but it's hardly concrete enough for the perplexed voters to grasp.

The statement, moreover, declared that Republican philosophy "rests on the doctrines that the individual has a God-given dignity and that government exists to serve him" and that "government should do for people only the things they cannot do for themselves."

This reads well enough for those who are familiar with the debate between the exponents of centralized power and the believers in less meddling by government. But it doesn't tell the average man what a growing dictatorship in government means to his everyday life and his future.

It doesn't tell him that, since the days of our forefathers, the threat of an all-powerful government and a police state has been hanging over this republic and has to be constantly fought as it rears its head each time an emergency arises in the economic life of the country.

The trouble with the Republicans is that lately they have not been aggressive in politics. They are too restrained. They like to get everybody to agree on generalities.

The difficulty with statements of principle is that, after everybody puts in his two cents' worth at the party conferences, the result is a namby - pamby utterance which doesn't arouse the voters to get into the fight and to enlist their friends and neighbors, too.

THERE IS only one issue on the domestic front that counts. It's based on the pocketbook. Things are not going well nowadays.

The stock market drop reflects a widespread uneasiness about the man at the wheel in the White House. He himself isn't up for reelection this year but if more radicals and more rubber - stamp representatives and senators are elected this November, the coalition of non-socialists from the North and South, which in the last 15 years has saved America from state socialism, will be weakened and perhaps rendered powerless to stem the tide. Business then would get worse, and unemployment would rise.

The real issue of 1962 is whether private business is going to be permitted to function naturally and to expand normally, or whether government is going to try to run everything.

The Republicans can, in the 1962 campaign, draw this line clearly. The people can come to understand the effects on their wages, their salaries, their savings and their opportunities to move ahead toward a better life.

The people don't understand "sophisticated" ideas, but they do understand dollars and cents and the worries that come with recessions and depressions.

Twain Closing Gap

By Tom Lambert

East is East and West is West as Kipling said and never the twain shall meet.

But American combat forces now in Thailand, and this country's affable people, certainly seem to be trying to push the twain a little closer together.

This joint effort shows in a variety of ways, including the following:

The U.S. Army jeep moved sedately along the outskirts of Khorat the other day, the driver lifting an occasional wondering eyebrow at his passenger, who had accepted an offer of rice, but was saying nothing to him.

A Thai police officer in a small village in the forested plain south of here gaped in surprise one evening at dusk as a patrolling Army platoon pushed into sight. Recovering, the policeman greeted the troops and proffered a choice of fruit.

Taxicab drivers, whose first middle and last names can run into a total of 25 pronunciation-resistant letters are now introducing themselves as "Sam" or "Joe" even while smilingly attempting to hike the fare.

Especially around U.S. military camps, Thais have surged forward with smiles, deals and requests and have found ready American response.

Americans had not completed building the headquarters camp here before Thais set up seven soft-drink, fruit and other stands outside the main gate and were doing a roaring business.

An Army combat medical team halted recently between two villages whose combined population of 80 had been invited earlier to bring in their sick. Before nightfall the medics had treated 250 Thais, most of whom had heard of the medical offer by bamboo telegraph and had walked through rice paddies or mountain forests to line up for penicillin shots for infections or vitamins for dietary deficiencies.

As a score of GI's stood open-mouthed around a Thai farmer who had noosed an eight-foot python, he offered to give or sell it to them.

Although the American move into Thailand is presumably of limited duration, it is beginning to take on a qualifiedly longer-term look.

The headquarters camp has been classified as "semi-permanent" and presumably soon will have floors and screens for its tents. A 100-bed Army field hospital has been set up under command of Lt. Col. Willard R. Warren of Cooperstown, N.Y. A first detachment of 10 Army nurses—six female and four male—has arrived led by Maj. Margaret Maher of Highland Falls, N.Y.

The ranking supply officer said the Army intends to establish 30 days supply of everything from bullets to beans in Thailand and maintain that level with shipments from Okinawa, Hawaii, the Philippines and the United States. None of the Americans here seem to know how long they are expected to stay.

"Thais feel more secure with Americans here," said a Bankok newspaperman, commenting on the political implications of the United States move into this country. "GI's mean more business, many sales of silk, jewelry and other things", said a beaming Bangkok shopkeeper.

Bighorn Sheep

The facts about bighorn sheep are as strange as the legends they have inspired.

Bighorn rams batter one another mercilessly with their huge, curling horns. The mountain sheep bound gracefully up and down steep cliffs that offer no obvious footholds. They survive long periods without water.

More than a million bighorns lived in prehistoric North America, the National Geographic Society estimates. Today fewer than 20,000 range from western Canada to Mexico.

Ralph E. Welles, a naturalist with the National Park Service, and his wife Florence recently published a study of a herd of desert bighorn that inhabits the mountains rimming Death Valley.

After seven years of intensive field research, the couple concluded that the celebrated butting matches of rams are probably rituals, not serious fights for possession of mates. The bouts apparently fulfill some deep urge in the mating season, but do not directly concern the ewes.

Wellsville Aide Thanked

Council Pleased With Street Job

Councilman William Stroble, in giving his street and light committee report at Wellsville Council Tuesday night, said the completion of the surfacing of Buckeye Ave. is a "dream come true."

He commented it is something that has been needed for years but said he feels Council should take the credit. He thanked Safety-Service Director Fred Baldasare for carrying out the "orders" of Council in the project.

In announcing the work, Baldasare had said that it was part of a program of improvements he had set up in December before assuming the position when the new administration took office.

A REPLY WAS read from Clyde Baker, superintendent of Springhill Cemetery, for the letter received from Council complimenting him on the condition of the cemetery. He said that when he assumed the duties June 16, 1930, there was no grass, flowers, etc., at the cemetery but that it now is considered a beauty spot of the city. He said he would show a better job if funds were available.

Councilman Donald Miller, finance chairman, said $1,069 was collected last month from parking meters. He said many of the meters were being damaged by persons shoving sticks into the coin slots and then breaking them off. He also complained of persons using slugs.

The ordinance committee was asked to check if the parking meter ordinance provides a fine for each vandalism.

Miller also said the Hammond Park Commission has requested an additional $500 for work at the park. He said his committee will meet to investigate the request.

MILLER ALSO commented that the city needs an ordinance prohibiting the abandoning of old refrigerators that have not had the door removed. He said the fine should be $100 and a jail term of 30 to 90 days. He said many can be seen around town. The ordinance committee was asked to check.

A request from Kathryn Gualtier, 1715 Main St., to cut 11 feet of curbing on Center St. for a garage entrance was referred to Baldasare.

Councilman Frank DaLonzo said he had received another price on a prefabricated building for construction on city property at 1st St. He asked what action could be taken. Miller said no money was available and the city would have to float a bond issue. Further action was tabled.

DeLonzo also asked if any action is contemplated on a survey made by city police, the service director and state officials on the section of super-road from where it joins Wells Ave. to Silver Switch.

The letter from William B. McKenna, Division 11 deputy highway director, was read. He suggested no parking along Wells Ave., marking of the left lane of the westbound section to turn left into Mason's Foodliner, erection of proper signs and restricting traffic to using the legal accesses to the highway, pointing out it is a limited access highway and several businesses are using entrance ways which are not properly allowed.

MILLER and Councilman Robert Taggart commented they could not "see that much trouble" in the area. Stroble said he feels perhaps erection of signs might be allright.

A complaint was heard from two Danbury Ave. property owners of sewage backing up into the basement of their homes. Council received a similar complaint from a resident near 15th St. at the last meeting. Baldasare was directed to contact George Bloomgren, East Liverpool engineer, to investigate the problems and make recommendations.

Mrs. Margaret Baldwin, clerk, was directed to write the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., requesting repairs to all crossings in the city.

Council also voted to ask the police department to check on speeding.

George Hough, 1623 Lincoln Ave., again appeared before Council asking if any action had been taken on his request for police protection at the crossing at 10th and Main Sts. on Sunday mornings for persons attending the Central Methodist Church.

Miller explained an officer has been on duty all week for the opening and closing of Daily Vacation Bible School at the church. He said police also have been informed of the request for Sunday protection.

HOUGH ALSO complained of motorists ignoring stop signs and said he also saw a police cruiser crash a stop sign. Clarence Cartwright, former councilman, spoke from the audience and suggested Hough take someone with him, collect the license numbers of the offenders and then prefer charges.

Dr. E. H. Webster, an osteopath, spoke from the audience outlining his proposal for construction of a community hospital. He said it would cost approximately $200,000 or less with 50 beds. He said it would be open to all medical doctors, osteopaths, dentists and chiropractors if they have a state license to practice.

He said the funds would be raised by public subscription. He said the proposed site is Central Park and suggested Council also consider erecting a City Hall and Post Office at the site.

COUNCIL held a special meeting June 11 and authorized a salary of $175 per month for the sanitation clerk position and $1,500 for the purchase of new city truck. The money for the truck will come from the parking meter funds.

Auditor Edgar Davidson's report for May showed the general fund is $2,731.46 overdrawn. The street maintenance fund totals $19,417.33 and there is $6,750.68 in the parking meter funds.

Miller gave the opening prayer.

Motorcyclists Fined

LISBON — Two Lisbon motorcycle riders were fined $25 and costs each Tuesday by Mayor Dean Stockman for reckless operation. Charles D. Kidder, 22, of 212 N. Market St., and David P. Paolino, 324 N. Market St., were cited by village police Monday evening for driving recklessly on E. High St. in front of Chief Dalton Pike's home.

Teen-Age Girls To Give Testimony About Clubs

WASHINGTON (AP) —Senators investigating vice behind the footlights were expected to hear testimony today that teen-age girls were used as prostitutes in honky tonk night clubs in Florida.

Among the scheduled witnesses were Daniel Sullivan, director of the Miami Crime Commission; officials of the Florida State Liquor Licensing Board, and spokesmen for the American Guild of Variety Artists, AFL-CIO.

Jerome Adlerman, counsel for the Senate investigations subcommittee, said there would also be some other witnesses from Miami and Tampa but declined to identify them in advance.

For more than a week the subcommittee has heard witnesses from the G-string circuit—dancers, singers, cafe owners and reputed mobsters—as well as from police officials in its probe of alleged connivance between underworld figures and some officials of the entertainers' union, AGVA.

Testimony that teen-age girls as young as 15 were recruited in the United States, Canada and Cuba under promises of night club stardom but forced into a life of vice stirred senatorial wrath at Tuesday's hearings.

Witnesses had traced the girls to clubs in the Chicago area, Hurley, Wis., and the notorious section known as "The Block" in Baltimore, Md.

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., subcommittee chairman, said AGVA should be kicked out of the "house of decent unionism."

He said union officials had "wilfully, deliberately, premeditatedly" failed to enforce contracts designed to protect entertainers from exploitation.

The subcommittee has heard stories of threats and actual beatings to keep girls from running away.

"A union that would go along—a union that would tolerate this becomes a party to it, and in my judgment can have no proper place in the house of decent unionism," McClellan declared.

Minutes later Jerry Green, AGVA's Baltimore branch manager, acknowledged under oath he never had enforced the provisions of the union's contract forbidding club owners to require entertainers to mix with male patrons.

Nor, Green added, was he ever told to enforce the provisions by the union's president, comedian Joey Adams; or its operating head, the administrative secretary, Jackie Bright.

Roofers Local Ends Strike Of 18 Days

CLEVELAND (AP) — All 200 members of Roofers Local 44 will be back at work by the end of the week as a result of settlement of their 18-day strike against 21 contractors, union and employer spokesman say.

A new steward plan and zone mileage expenses are provided by the settlement. Industrial and commercial building jobs in 11 counties had been held up because of the walkout.

More Witnesses Due In Civil Rights Trial

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP) — As many as 10 more defense witnesses may take the stand today in U.S. District Court in behalf of six men charged with violating the civil rights of Sheriff George Ratterman of neighboring Campbell County.

The defense called 14 witnesses Tuesday as the trial went into its third week.

Most of the witnesses described how Ratterman looked in the hours preceding his arrest in a Newport, Ky. hotel room together with a strip tease dancer. They said Ratterman looked normal while drinking at several Cincinnati night spots in the company of Tito Carinci and Thomas Paisley, a Medina, Ohio, businessman.

Carinci is one of the defendants in the trial.

Beck Starts Pen Term On Tax Evasion

SEATTLE (AP) — Dave Beck, 68-year-old president of the former Teamsters' Union, goes to federal prison today, but he says he does not have to stay down just because he was knocked down.

Beck, wealthy Seattle businessman, was expected at the U.S. marshal's office in Tacoma. From there he was to take the short boat trip to McNeil Island federal penitentiary, in Puget Sound.

On the eve of his five-year term for filing fraudulent tax returns, he told a reporter: "You don't have to fall down just because you've been knocked down. What matters is, 'Do you get up again?'"

His arrival at McNeil Island will mark the close of five years of legal maneuvers to stay free. Beck was convicted on two charges which played a minor part in his tax evasion trial in 1958-59.

The charges were filing fraudulent tax returns for the union's Joint Council 28 Building Association in Seattle. Beck swears he never saw the returns, but the courts said he should have known what they contained. They were information returns involving no tax payments.

Government charges that he evaded paying $240,000 in taxes for the years 1950-53 were dismissed, but a few days ago the U.S. Supreme Court upheld his conviction on the false union returns. That meant Beck, a one-time laundry truck driver who became one of the most powerful labor figures in the nation, had two concurrent five-year sentences to serve and a fine of $20,000 to pay.

A grand larceny conviction and 15-year sentence in state courts also hangs over his head for pocketing $1,900 from the sale of a union-owned Cadillac.

With Ohio Federation

Mrs. Ethel Wambaugh Appointed BPW Aide

Mrs. Ethel Lynn Wambaugh of Ohio Ave. has been appointed personal development chairman of the Ohio Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs by Mrs. Mary E. Hostrup, first vice president and program chairman.

As a standing committee chairman, she will serve for the third consecutive year as a member of the Executive Board, having served for the past two years as director of District 8.

Her term of office in the new post begins officially July 1 but installation of committee chairmen was conducted during the Program Planning Clinic held last weekend in Port Clinton.

Mrs. Wambaugh, an associate member of the G. E. Eckert Advertising Agency, has been a continuing member of the local BPW Club's Executive Board since its organization, and in 1959 was presented with an honorary life membership, the only member to receive this award.

Officers and standing committee chairmen of District 8 will meet Sunday noon at Heck's Restaurant for the annual program conference. Mrs. Wambaugh will preside jointly with Mrs. Goldie Smith of Canton, new district director.

Mrs. Doris McKinnon will discuss "Parliamentary Procedures" as part of the panel program.

Miss Mary Alice Lemal, first vice president and program chairman of the local club, will be accompanied by a large delegation.

DiSalle's Decision Due On Police Killer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle paid a visit to convicted Akron police slayer James Rodney Buck on death row Tuesday, then said he probably would make a decision in the case Thursday.

DiSalle said he already has talked with Buck's family and has reviewed the file of the 25-year-old who is scheduled to die in the Ohio Penitentiary electric chair Friday night.

Buck was convicted of murdering patrolman Floyd Weatherholt Jr. during a holdup in March 1960. He has received five stays of execution during the past year.

Parking Area To Be Sought

Faced by growing parking problems at Fredericktown, St. Clair Township trustees Monday night agreed to ask some property owners in that area to permit parking on grounds now unused.

Constables reported parking congestion at the community along Beaver Creek was neavier over the weekend than before, but the officers said they were able to keep traffic lanes open.

Residents had previously protested that cars blocked their driveways and streets. The trustees agreed to seek additional parking areas.

The trustees also approved smoothing and placing gravel on a roadway leading to the Presbyterian Camp near Grimms Bridge.

Brazil Official Dies

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Gabriel Passos, 61, Brazil's minister of mines and energy and a leading advocate of that nation's move to nationalize private electric utilities, died Tuesday night. He was a brother-in-law of former President Juscelino Kubitschek.

Full Government Operation Slated At Girls State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — If there happened to be any "lame ducks" lingering around Buckeye Girls' State, they were engulfed today as the teen-age community's government began full operation.

With Kathleen McFarland of Toledo esconced as governor following Tuesday's election — although she won't be formally inaugurated until tonight—executive, legislative and judical branches started functioning.

They'll carry on the rest of the week, one of the highlights coming tonight when Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt of the Ohio Supreme Court inaugurates officers and Gov. Michael V. DiSalle addresses the 1,119 girls at the inauguration banquet.

All but 23 of the young polititions voted for governor Tuesday, despite rain at pool-opening. They cast 571 votes for Miss McFarland, a Nationalist, to 525 for Federalist nominee Sylvia Jane Cox of Columbus.

The governor will have to work with Federalists who were chosen attorney general (Paula Krupko of McDonald) and State auditor (Kathleen Sue Rumbaugh of Kent), but has Nationalist company in the posts of lieutenant governor (Sue Danielson of Bay Village), secretary of state (Mary Beth Alderman of Warren) and treasurer (Linda Maureen Gold of South Euclid).

No Steel Price Boost Expected Until September

NEW YORK (AP)—The effects of the clash with President Kennedy rule out serious thoughts of a steel price increase before September, the Iron Age said today.

The metalworking weekly said the earliest possibility would be in that month and could only be selective.

It made the comment after noting that the new steel labor contract will add an estimated $2 a ton to the cost of making steel when it becomes effective July 1.

The added cost will come, it added, at a time when steel orders are at a rate that would justify steel production equal to only 50 per cent of capacity.

The new labor contract may cause considerable disruption at the local level, the Iron Age said, because of what it termed complicated security provisions that are still being worked out.

These include regional transfers, minimum work weeks and flexible vacation schedules.

The September increases might be possible, said the Iron Age, because inventory liquidations should be past and an upturn in steel orders and production may be under way.

The short-term outlook is poor, the magazine said. It predicted a production drop of 10 per cent in July and said a resurgence of buying by automakers for August is not likely to reach expected strength.

2 Motorists Charged After County Mishaps

A Columbiana man was cited after a collision on Route 14 Tuesday, and an East Palestine man was charged with exceeding safe speeds when his car hit a bridge railing.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Richard L. McMillen, 31, of 563 N. Sumner St. lost control of his car on Peace Valley Rd. northwest of Negley, and it hit the railings of a bridge about 6:45 p. m.

McMillen was charged with traveling too fast for road conditions. The front of his sedan and the bridge railing were damaged.

Phillip R. Detwiler, 21, of Columbiana was cited for failure to stop in the assured clear distance after his auto hit the rear of another on Route 14 five miles west of Route 165 at 7:10 p. m.

Officers said Detwiler's convertible hit the rear of a coach driven by Robert L. Witmer, 25, of Columbiana R. D. as Witmer slowed for a turn.

East Palestine Seeks $97,100 For Project

EAST PALESTINE — The city has formally completed application for a $97,100 federal grant for a proposed new sewage disposal facility, Mayor Robert Harding announced today.

The city has forwarded the application for the grant to the Floyd G. Browne Associates, Marion engineering firm, which will send it and the plans and specifications to federal authorities before the July 1 deadline, he said.

The city had originally contemplated a $90,000 grant as part of the $330,000 project, but officials said the grant can be applied to engineering and surveying so the application figure was increased, the mayor said.

Firemen Answer False River Call

Two "false alarms," including a report that a boat had overturned in the Ohio River and the occupants were struggling to get ashore, were answered Tuesday night by city firemen.

Police received a call at 8 p. m. from a woman who said a boat had overturned in the river off Shadyside Ave. in West End.

Firemen were notified and dispatched the emergency truck and rescue boat to the scene. They said two boys were swimming in the river and a man was fishing.

In another false call, a Harker Ave. resident reported seeing smoke and sparks coming from a nearby property about 10:30.

Firemen said a neighbor was having a barbecue in the back yard.

Prestige Tilt Stalls Pay Of Secret Agents

WASHINGTON (AP) — The prestige of the House and Senate fly like battle flags over a clash that has thrust into the light a shadowy dispute over status and has tied up pay checks of Secret Service agents.

Caught in the middle are some money bills, including a $500-million supplemental appropriations bill to tide over government agencies which ran out of money until the new fiscal year begins in July.

Because of the feud some of the bills have been hanging fire for two months.

The Secret Service, which guards the President, was the first to feel the pinch. Its 706 agents and clerks won't receive their pay this week and are working on the cuff.

This is the situation:

When the Senate and House appropriations groups meet to iron out differences in bills, the meeting has always had a senator for chairman. The House committee wants to change that and rotate the chairmanship.

The senators have come up with a counter proposal—if they agree to rotate the chairmanship, then the House members must agree to let the Senate originate half of the money bills. The House starts them all now as it has for years and years.

Neither side has accepted the other's demands. Neither has shown any signs of wishing to compromise. Each has accused the other of being stubborn and unreasonable.

Prestige Tilt Stalls Pay Of Secret Agents

WASHINGTON (AP) — The prestige of the House and Senate fly like battle flags over a clash that has thrust into the light a shadowy dispute over status and has tied up pay checks of Secret Service agents.

Caught in the middle are some money bills, including a $500-million supplemental appropriations bill to tide over government agencies which ran out of money until the new fiscal year begins in July.

Because of the feud some of the bills have been hanging fire for two months.

The Secret Service, which guards the President, was the first to feel the pinch. Its 706 agents and clerks won't receive their pay this week and are working on the cuff.

This is the situation:

When the Senate and House appropriations groups meet to iron out differences in bills, the meeting has always had a senator for chairman. The House committee wants to change that and rotate the chairmanship.

The senators have come up with a counter proposal—if they agree to rotate the chairmanship, then the House members must agree to let the Senate originate half of the money bills. The House starts them all now as it has for years and years.

Neither side has accepted the other's demands. Neither has shown any signs of wishing to compromise. Each has accused the other of being stubborn and unreasonable.

Aliquippa Union Votes Tabulated

BEAVER — Despite an off-again-on-again election of Aliquippa United Steelworkers Local 1211, a heavy vote of 6,450 ballots were cast Tuesday.

Results were not available since only 3,200 ballots have been tabulated so far.

Louis Biega, president, was reported trailing Morros Brummitt, an independent, and Louis (Blackie) DeSena was trailing Fred Faber for general grievanceman.

The election was called off Monday night after Judge Ruggero J. Aldisert of the Allegheny County Court of Common Pleas upheld a petition of USW rebel Nick Mamula, who claimed he was illegally barred from a place on the ballot as a candidate for president.

benville. The board then readvertised for electrical bids in a move for more competitive bidding.

In other action, the board hired six teachers for next term, including two for Newell schools, and accepted the resignations of three others.

Mrs. Walters, a Newell resident, succeeds Mrs. Mary Mangano, who has taken a leave of absence.

Other instructors hired for the 1962-63 term are Orville Dingess of Weir High, Mrs. Monrette Jones, Mrs. Laura Hedrick and Charles B. Davis.

Supt. Hall reported that the board needs only a mathematics instructor and a girls' physical education teacher to fill present vacancies for next term. There are applicants for each post, he said.

The board also adopted a new report card and a new schedule for issuing the grade cards to pupils.

Under the new plan, report cards will be issued students every nine weeks, instead of every six weeks as at present. Students may retain the new cards for their records, and the final card will have all grades compiled for their school work. The board will also have a copy for its records. Cost of the new type of punched report cards is $1,100.

New textbooks were adopted for mathematics, science and modern languages.

The board authorized the Chester High School Band to participate in Weirton's July 4th parade, the Newell firemen's parade July 20, Chester fireman's parade Aug. 3 and a performance at Kennywood Park Aug. 25.

The Wells High band was given permission to play in Weirton's July 4th parade, Newell fireman's parade July 14 and another in Newell July 20.

Dr. W. Dale Williams, president, presided. Next meeting is July 2.

Fotheringham) and warned them when they were ready to charge me directly with 'collusion' or 'kickbacks' that I would fight back in any way necessary, even to taking it to court."

Referring to the councilman, he said: "I will answer him with a suit for libel or slander whenever he's brave enough to accuse me personally."

"I want to apologize to Council for taking up their valuable time with something that doesn't concern them," Owen said. "I will do everything in my power to prevent it in the future."

The June 4 discussion concerned the contract awarded Tri-State for the blacktop job on the parking lot, even though it was the highest of three bidders.

Owen explained that Tri-State objected to the bids of the other two concerns because they did not quote separate prices for labor and material, as required by state law. Tri-State's representative raised the objection at a meeting of the Board of Control at which the bids were opened.

Owen and Mayor Bert H. Goodballet, comprising the board, referred the objections to Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper for a ruling. The solicitor upheld the objection, which ruled out the bids of the other two concerns.

Jury Selection Begins In Auto Damage Trial

LISBON — A Common Pleas Court jury was being seated today in a trial over a 1960 traffic mishap in which a car struck a Salem home.

The Lumberman's Mutual Insurance Co. of Mansfield seeks $7,880 from Mrs. Nellie Holzbach of Salem for damages to the home of Maude and Mary Herbert of Salem, which was struck by Mrs. Holzbach's auto. Judge Joel H. Sharp is presiding.

Crew Uses Sand After Chemicals 'Grease' Streets

City crews scattered sand Tuesday on blacktop streets which were made slippery by a dust-laying chemical applied on berms and then "tracked" onto blacktop pavement by traffic.

The sand was scattered on sections of Lisbon St., particularly the grade above W. 9th St., and also on outer St. Clair Ave.

The pavement took on a "greasy" feeling under traffic because of calcium chloride which had been sprayed on the berms to help hold down dust. Some of the chemical was tracked onto the blacktop, causing a highly slippery condition.

Street Supt. W. M. Laughlin said crews now have been instructed to apply the material far enough from the edge of the pavement that the danger of making the blacktop slippery will be held to a minimum.

The calcium chloride has been used primarily to hold down dust on unsurfaced streets, a substitute for the annual citywide oiling program.

ties might want additional off-street parking, revealing an option has been taken on the old United Presbyterian Church building next to the present Post Office.

He said the property would be turned over to the city at the actual option price and that the transaction was made to protect the city.

Later in the meeting, Baldwin commented Council "had washed its hands" of the Post Office project and should back up its action.

The mayor has proposed that the present City Hall be razed, additional property be obtained and a combination building constructed. He asked at the last meeting that the proposal be put to a vote of the people. He said the rental would pay for the building in 20 years.

Canton Plans Mall

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — If City council approves, construction of a $375,000 mall at Public Square here will begin in July with the Timken Foundation paying the entire cost of the project. Three large fountains, a number of trees and large paved areas suitable for concerts, ice shows and other community events would be on the two mall islands, along with two small buildings for food service.

Lewis said if water was played into one of the dormers, the other three would continue to burn. Water could not be played into the concealed areas because of the ceiling and walls.

At the height of the fire, the flames shot about 25 feet in the air. The heavy smoke was visible in nearby communities. The building was the office of the former American Sheet & Tin Plate Co. It was purchased from the firm by Post 70.

The roof started collapsing about 10:30.

The first floor contained a large meeting hall, lounge room, kitchen and small barroom. The second floor had another meeting hall, the main barroom and a smaller room. The attic apartment was not occupied.

The Liverpool Township West volunteer department sent a truck and men to Wellsville and remained on standby at the station. They were called because it first was believed extra men might be needed, Lewis said.

Seventeen Wellsville volunteers responded to the call.

had earnings subject to the city tax.

"I will continue this case a week for imposition of sentence," the judge told Collins. "In the meantime, you sit down with Mr. Wilkinson and figure out if you owe any money. It may be, if you file a return, you don't owe any money. He'll tell me what's what and we'll figure out what to do in your case."

Aliquippa Union Votes Tabulated

BEAVER — Despite an off-again-on-again election of Aliquippa United Steelworkers Local 1211, a heavy vote of 6,450 ballots were cast Tuesday.

Results were not available since only 3,200 ballots have been tabulated so far.

Louis Biega, president, was reported trailing Morros Brummitt, an independent, and Louis (Blackie) DeSena was trailing Fred Faber for general grievanceman.

The election was called off Monday night after Judge Ruggero J. Aldisert of the Allegheny County Court of Common Pleas upheld a petition of USW rebel Nick Mamula, who claimed he was illegally barred from a place on the ballot as a candidate for president.

benville. The board then readvertised for electrical bids in a move for more competitive bidding.

In other action, the board hired six teachers for next term, including two for Newell schools, and accepted the resignations of three others.

Mrs. Walters, a Newell resident, succeeds Mrs. Mary Mangano, who has taken a leave of absence.

Other instructors hired for the 1962-63 term are Orville Dingess of Weir High, Mrs. Monrette Jones, Mrs. Laura Hedrick and Charles B. Davis.

Supt. Hall reported that the board needs only a mathematics instructor and a girls' physical education teacher to fill present vacancies for next term. There are applicants for each post, he said.

The board also adopted a new report card and a new schedule for issuing the grade cards to pupils.

Under the new plan, report cards will be issued students every nine weeks, instead of every six weeks as at present. Students may retain the new cards for their records, and the final card will have all grades compiled for their school work. The board will also have a copy for its records. Cost of the new type of punched report cards is $1,100.

New textbooks were adopted for mathematics, science and modern languages.

The board authorized the Chester High School Band to participate in Weirton's July 4th parade, the Newell firemen's parade July 20, Chester fireman's parade Aug. 3 and a performance at Kennywood Park Aug. 25.

The Wells High band was given permission to play in Weirton's July 4th parade, Newell fireman's parade July 14 and another in Newell July 20.

Dr. W. Dale Williams, president, presided. Next meeting is July 2.

Fotheringham) and warned them when they were ready to charge me directly with 'collusion' or 'kickbacks' that I would fight back in any way necessary, even to taking it to court."

Referring to the councilman, he said: "I will answer him with a suit for libel or slander whenever he's brave enough to accuse me personally."

"I want to apologize to Council for taking up their valuable time with something that doesn't concern them," Owen said. "I will do everything in my power to prevent it in the future."

The June 4 discussion concerned the contract awarded Tri-State for the blacktop job on the parking lot, even though it was the highest of three bidders.

Owen explained that Tri-State objected to the bids of the other two concerns because they did not quote separate prices for labor and material, as required by state law. Tri-State's representative raised the objection at a meeting of the Board of Control at which the bids were opened.

Owen and Mayor Bert H. Goodballet, comprising the board, referred the objections to Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper for a ruling. The solicitor upheld the objection, which ruled out the bids of the other two concerns.

Jury Selection Begins In Auto Damage Trial

LISBON — A Common Pleas Court jury was being seated today in a trial over a 1960 traffic mishap in which a car struck a Salem home.

The Lumberman's Mutual Insurance Co. of Mansfield seeks $7,880 from Mrs. Nellie Holzbach of Salem for damages to the home of Maude and Mary Herbert of Salem, which was struck by Mrs. Holzbach's auto. Judge Joel H. Sharp is presiding.

Crew Uses Sand After Chemicals 'Grease' Streets

City crews scattered sand Tuesday on blacktop streets which were made slippery by a dust-laying chemical applied on berms and then "tracked" onto blacktop pavement by traffic.

The sand was scattered on sections of Lisbon St., particularly the grade above W. 9th St., and also on outer St. Clair Ave.

The pavement took on a "greasy" feeling under traffic because of calcium chloride which had been sprayed on the berms to help hold down dust. Some of the chemical was tracked onto the blacktop, causing a highly slippery condition.

Street Supt. W. M. Laughlin said crews now have been instructed to apply the material far enough from the edge of the pavement that the danger of making the blacktop slippery will be held to a minimum.

The calcium chloride has been used primarily to hold down dust on unsurfaced streets, a substitute for the annual citywide oiling program.

ties might want additional off-street parking, revealing an option has been taken on the old United Presbyterian Church building next to the present Post Office.

He said the property would be turned over to the city at the actual option price and that the transaction was made to protect the city.

Later in the meeting, Baldwin commented Council "had washed its hands" of the Post Office project and should back up its action.

The mayor has proposed that the present City Hall be razed, additional property be obtained and a combination building constructed. He asked at the last meeting that the proposal be put to a vote of the people. He said the rental would pay for the building in 20 years.

Canton Plans Mall

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — If City council approves, construction of a $375,000 mall at Public Square here will begin in July with the Timken Foundation paying the entire cost of the project. Three large fountains, a number of trees and large paved areas suitable for concerts, ice shows and other community events would be on the two mall islands, along with two small buildings for food service.

Fire

Lewis said if water was played into one of the dormers, the other three would continue to burn. Water could not be played into the concealed areas because of the ceiling and walls.

At the height of the fire, the flames shot about 25 feet in the air. The heavy smoke was visible in nearby communities. The building was the office of the former American Sheet & Tin Plate Co. It was purchased from the firm by Post 70.

The roof started collapsing about 10:30.

The first floor contained a large meeting hall, lounge room, kitchen and small barroom. The second floor had another meeting hall, the main barroom and a smaller room. The attic apartment was not occupied.

The Liverpool Township West volunteer department sent a truck and men to Wellsville and remained on standby at the station. They were called because it first was believed extra men might be needed, Lewis said.

Seventeen Wellsville volunteers responded to the call.

Redistrict City, Cleveland Told By High Court

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court today ordered Cleveland City Council to redistrict the city into 33 wards "as nearly equal in population as may be."

The high court acted on a mandamus action filed by a Cleveland taxpayer, Robert E. Scott.

The order is based on a 1945 city charter provision. Scott contended in his lawsuit that Cleveland's council failed to redistrict the city after the 1950 and 1960 census.

The high court ruled that the principal question involved was whether, in view of the doctrine of separation of powers, the court had the authority to compel the city council, a legislative body, to redistrict the city in accordance with a mandatory charter provision."

The court concluded in its 6-0 decision, that it has that authority. Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt did not participate in the decision.

Return To California

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Simms left Tuesday for their home at Lemongrove, Calif., after a month's visit with area relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Simms are former residents of East Liverpool.

They remained a few days longer than planned in order to visit Chief Air Controlman and Mrs. Ralph McDevitt and children, Wayne and Linda Ann, who arrived Monday from New Iberia, La., where he has been stationed at the Air Force Base. He will spend a short furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McDevitt, of W. Maple St. before leaving for a year's assignment in Iceland. Mrs. McDevitt and children will live with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nicholson, of Stadium Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Brobst have left for their home in Preston, Ont., Canada, after visiting the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Webber of W. Maple St. Guests in the Webber home this week are their granddaughters, Barbara and Diane Wise, of Columbiana.

Mrs. Fallon Kline of Panorama City, Calif., left Sunday for her home following a 10-day visit with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Sullivan, of E. Chestnut St.

Honoring birthday anniversaries of their husbands, Mrs. Wayne Calhoun, Mrs. Byron Griffith and Mrs. Al Burson entertained 30 guests at a patio party at the Burson home on S. Lincoln Ave. Saturday evening.

Guests were present from Warren, Canfield, New Philadelphia, Salem, Columbiana and Berlin Center. Mrs. Pauline Crawford of Alhambra, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Redd of Clearfield, Pa., weekend visitors of the Bursons, also were guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lipp, Mrs. V. L. Hanna, Mrs. Robert Fife and Mrs. Russell Dixon were guests Monday night at a special meeting of the Order of Eastern Star in Salem.

Travel Fund Cleared

Redistrict City, Cleveland Told By High Court

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court today ordered Cleveland City Council to redistrict the city into 33 wards "as nearly equal in population as may be."

The high court acted on a mandamus action filed by a Cleveland taxpayer, Robert E. Scott.

The order is based on a 1945 city charter provision. Scott contended in his lawsuit that Cleveland's council failed to redistrict the city after the 1950 and 1960 census.

The high court ruled that the principal question involved was whether, in view of the doctrine of separation of powers, the court had the authority to compel the city council, a legislative body, to redistrict the city in accordance with a mandatory charter provision."

The court concluded in its 6-0 decision, that it has that authority. Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt did not participate in the decision.

Dear Heloise: For those who want to make easy-to-care-for, long-lasting drapes . . . use plain colored chenille bedspreads. They can be thrown in the washing machine and either dried on the line or in a dryer. Mine never seem to wear out.

To defrost your upright deep freeze, wait until the supply of food is low, remove and wrap in newspapers, leave door open and set an electric fan on a chair and let it blow in the freezer. Note: I said to set the fan on a chair and NOT in the freezer.

I defrost my freezer in about 20 minutes by this method, using bath towels to soak up the water.

MRS. ELWOOD POWELL JR.

For those of you who have outsized windows . . . bedspreads are wonderful for making draperies. They are cheap, too.

They are no trouble at all to make. Just split the spread in half and hem the torn sides. Make a heading at the top to run your rods through. These may also be pinch-pleated, if you are so inclined. Bedspreads are especially good for draw drapes, as they do not have to be lined.

For older homes with long narrow windows, bedspreads can't be beaten for draperies and curtains. Watch for your sales. Many stores put these spreads on sale when they get down to broken stock.

I suggest that you consider buying full size bedspreads no matter what size your window is. These make the drape fuller and they are usually the same price . . . when on sale.

I bought the spreads with fringe around the edges. The fringe was left on the spreads and used on the inside and bottom of the curtain in place of the usual ruffle. Real cute.

I also would like to pass on another hint. When making these curtains . . . use a BIG stitch on your sewing machine. You will have no "pull" on a curtain as you ordinarily do in clothing.

A big stitch goes faster and you can make a straighter seam and hem. I also suggest using mercerized thread when sewing on hob nail or chenille spreads.

And if you have maple or ranch type furniture, try the white hob nail spreads. They are so colonial looking. Later if you get tired of the white, which I did, throw the spreads in your washing machine and tint them! I tinted one set pale peach. The next year when I got tired of peach, I just bleached them white again in my machine.

A year later I tinted them turquoise. What a welcome change this was. Two years later I gave them away. And, just like Mrs. Powell says, they were still good as new.

The spreads can also be put in a dryer—without heat—and tumbled to remove dust. Makes them look so fresh and clean. Buffs-up the tufts, too.

HELOISE

Key To Travel

DEAR HELOISE:

Here's a quickie for those who travel and are in a hurry. Saves time and nerves:

I use my bottle of red fingernail polish and put "dots" on each key that belongs to our suitcases. One dot on the key is for the smallest case, the makeup case. Two dots means that it is for the second largest case, three dots for the next size and so on. . .

You'd be surprised how cool, calm and collected one can be when it's time to open them for inspection, to say nothing of the time saved fumbling around trying to find the right key for your own use.

Family At Irondale Hears Son By Radio

IRONDALE — Aroused from their sleep Monday at 4:30 a. m., the family of Lawrence Sprouse of Chestnut Grove talked by ham radio and telephone to their son, Army Spcl. 4C Donovan Sprouse, who is stationed on Okinawa.

At the time of the call, it was Sunday afternoon on the Far East island. Spcl. Sprouse contacted a ham radio operator in Oregon, and a collect phone call was made to the Sprouse home.

The soldier is a senior launchhand on a Hawk missile. He has been stationed there for 10 and a half months.

Suit Asks $25,000

LISBON — Mr. and Mrs. John Householder of Hammondsville R. D. 1 filed suit for $25,000 Monday in Common Pleas Court against Raymond R. Lipinski of Valencia, Pa., and George's Automotive Rental of Pittsburgh, claiming she was injured in a traffic crash June 20, 1960, on Aten Ave., Wellsville. Maintenance Key Highway Issue

By JOHN QUIRT
Herald Tribune News Service

WASHINGTON — Perhaps the most pressing question state highway commissions from Maine to California will face in the next decade is how to pay for maintenance of the nation's 41,000-mile Interstate Highway System.

Under present law, the states are obliged to foot 100 per cent of the bill for maintenance after paying only 10 per cent of the construction costs. But signs are beginning to appear that many of them may not be equal to the task.

With the Interstate System barely one-third completed, highway officials in two states, Kentucky and Oklahoma, are suggesting in private conversations that federal funds should be secured for maintenance.

A leading Tennessee newspaper has issued an open call for federal aid. And a group of legislators in Minnesota, after studying the issue, has taken a similar position.

Rex M. Whitton, federal highway commissioner, conceded to a reporter recently that "it may be tough for some states to raise maintenance money, but I am decidedly opposed to using federal funds."

MR. WHITTON based his opposition on the argument that federal aid would create paperwork problems in the field, and leave state inspectors responsible to two superiors. This could be "an awkward arrangement," he added.

Alfred E. Johnson, executive secretary of the American Association of State Highway Officials, takes a similar view. "It is going to come as a shock to many states to see the maintenance bill," he says, "but I still think they should be able to handle the burden."

Mr. Johnson, a ranking figure in the interstate project, opposes federal aid as a threat to the states' traditional administrative authority over federally-built roads.

EXACTLY how much money will be needed to maintain the system is still a matter of guesswork. When it was planned in the mid-1950s, neither the government nor highway interests took time to assay eventual maintenance

As Bertram D. Tallamy, federal highway administrator under the Eisenhower administration, put it in a recent interview: "The big need at that time was for construction costs. We avoided funds to meet the system's initial dealing with upkeep costs as we wanted to leave that entirely the state's responsibility."

Mr. Tallamy, now a consulting engineer, estimates maintenance cost at "roughly $180 million per year if we do the kind of preventative roadwork that we ought to do."

"If states continue to do only expedient maintenance," he warns, "the annual cost would balloon by about 3½ times that. Through delay, road rebuilding costs become excessive."

"This is a new financial burden for the states at a time when construction costs are not going to get lower. And I am not sure whether the states can come up with enough money from their legislatures to carry the load. If they cannot, I fear federal funds will be necessary to protect the taxpayer's investment, and the investment of private industries that have located along the system.

"I don't like federal aid, but it might not be so bad in this case. Demand for interstate construction funds will abate after completion of the system in 1972, and part of the funds then could be channeled into upkeep. But I oppose using expensive bond flotations for maintenance, even where they might work out," Mr. Tallamy said.

PART OF the pressure for federal aid stems from the unimpressive fare of bond flotations involving West Virginia, suburban Chicago and one or two other toll roads. This has had the effect of largely ruling out state bonds as an avenue for raising upkeep money.

Compounding the maintenance problem, too are the demands motorists place on limited-access systems: "Drivers insist on a dry clear road on snowy days, and will settle for nothing less." This is forcing highway departments to stand ready with myriad equipment 24 hours a day, Mr. Johnson said.

"Moreover, motorists are demanding better emergency warning procedures than hanging a white handkerchief on an aerial, and this will cost money, too," he added.

Thus far the Bureau of Public Roads successfully persuaded laggard states to handle essential Interstate System maintenance. It has done so on the strength of a project agreement binding states to maintain Interstate roads to the bureau's satisfaction.

THE WAY this lever works, if a state fails to meet bureau requirements, 90 days notice is given the highway department, then the bureau-hired crews, paid with state funds, can move in and handle roadwork while other federal highway aid is cut off.

The lever has been applied a half dozen times on lesser road projects but never on interstate. Its mere presence, however, seems to have combined with an element of pride to keep the states spending for necessary upkeep.

But it has not spurred many states into spending for preventative maintenance. Bureau officials take the view it is outside their province to push the states on this count.

A clause in U.S. state highway aid contracts requiring states to operate "adequately organized" highway departments is viewed as the only possible lever that might someday be used to push for preventive maintenance.

Easy-To Take Steps Spelled Out On Executive Order Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's latest executive order—hot off the White House mimeograph—spells out a dozen easy-to-take steps for getting an executive order to the President's desk.

The White House produced the new order Tuesday, the last sent to Kennedy under a 14-year-old order on orders.

From now on, when a government agency wants the President to issue an executive order or a proclamation, the outfit's boss must supply a letter explaining and justifying the request.

This has been the practice, the White House said. The new order simply makes it formal.

A few things to watch in whipping up a proposed executive order:

—Spelling and punctuation. Under provisions of the order the style has to conform to the Government Printing Office manual.

—The title. A proposed order or proclamation has to have a suitable one.

—Geographic names. They must be spelled in line with the decisions of the Board on Geographic Names.

—The paper it's on. "Proposed executive orders and proclamations shall be typewritten on paper approximately 8 x 13 inches, shall have a left-hand margin of approximately 1½ inches and a right-hand margin of approximately 1 inch."

Once those details are out of the way, the order-proposer submits his document—plus seven copies—to the budget director, along with a letter explaining its "nature, purpose, background and effect."

Highway Crew Starts District Centerlining

The 1962 centerline painting program in Division 11 of the State Highway Department began Monday, William P. McKenna, division deputy director, announced.

Men from the route marking section of the New Phildadelphia office will be using the paint striping machine on state highways. In order to apply the centerlines to the pavement it is necessary that the painting vehicle travel at a slow speed.

Motorists are asked to drive with caution when approaching an area where this painting is underway. The State Highway Patrol has been notified of the work and has been given a schedule of routes to be covered.

Sargus Lists $1,170 Spent

Edmund A. Sargus' successful campaign for the Democratic nomination as state senator from the 20th-22nd Senatorial District at the May 8 primary cost $1,170.65, according to sworn statements filed Monday with the County Election Board.

The St. Clairsville attorney said his personal expenses totaled $960.65 with $350 being contributed by the Ohio Telephone Education Committee of Cleveland.

The Sargus for Senate Committee listed receipts and expenditures of $210, according to the report from the chairman, John J. Hungerman Jr. of Martins Ferry. The contributions included $175 from Joseph F. Sargus of Bellaire and the remainder in individual donations ranging from $1 to $5, Hungerman said.

Congressional and senatorial district candidates are required to file the statements with the Columbiana election board since it is the most populous county in the district. The local board also is responsible for certifying the official vote on district races to the secretary of state's office.

The East Palestine Board of Education spent $167.50 in an unsuccessful effort for passage of a 5-mill current expense levy at the primaries. The same amount was contributed by Myron N. Goodwin, according to the report filed by Roy S. Blackburn Jr., board president. Goodwin is a Youngstown architect.

Frank C. Wilson of Wellsville said his expenses totaled $144.62 in his unopposed bid for renomination as county commissioner on the Democratic ticket.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, election board clerk, warned Friday at 4 p. m. is the deadline for filing the sworn statements of receipts and expenditures required of all candidates and committees by state law.

Dog Hunted To Spare Man Anti-Rabies Shots

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Most of Springfiled's night - shift police were combing the city early today for a "rather large, jet black, long-haired" dog in efforts to spare a Dayton man from painful anti-rabies treatments.

The 10 - day incubation period has expired since Gary Wade, 22, was bitten at the Snyder Park Golf Course here. Meanwhile, it was found that Wade's system couldn't tolerate regular anti-rabies vaccine. His doctor in Dayton said he is trying to acquire a different type of serum.

Wade himself joined the search Tuesday for the dog or the boy, about 13, who was with the animal at the golf course.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Frank Borzage, 69, who came to Hollywood as an actor in 1913 and became a top motion picture director, died Tuesday of cancer. Borzage, known for his tender love stories, won Academy Awards in 1927 for "Seventh Heaven" and in 1931 for "Bad Girl."

Midway Oil Properties Acquired By Humble Co.

Transfer of the business and properties of the Midway Oil Co. to Humble Oil Co., a subsidiary of Standard Oil of New Jersey, was announced today by George T. Farrell, Midway president.

No cash is involved in the transfer of the business, effective Aug. 1, which includes two bulk plants and 17 retail outlets in Columbiana County, northern Hancock County and a portion of Mahoning County, Farrell said.

Stock in the Midway firm is being exchanged for Jersey Standard shares, he explained.

The company's present personnel will be retained, Farrell said, with the exception of the officers who are leaving the business. The other company officers are Richard V. Beatty, vice president, and David F. Beatty, secretary-treasurer.

Humble, which opened its first station here at Lincoln and St. Clair Aves. about two years ago, will have 17 retail outlets, most of them operated under lease to individual operators.

It also will receive Midway's wholesale accounts supplying industrial firms in the three-county area with gasoline, oil and grease.

One of the bulk plants, along with a warehouse, is located on the River Rd. where Midway operated its own station.

The other is located at the intersection of Routes 14 and 46 in Mahoning County, just north of the village of Columbiana.

Midway has been handling Gulf Oil products since 1955 after serving as Fleetwing distributor for 27 years. Prior to that, it handled Sun Oil products, Farrell said.

4-H News

A Columbiana - Mahoning County 4-H dairy judging tour will be held June 28 at three Lisbon area farms.

Beginning at 10 a.m., guests will visit the Richard Rhodes farm. A sack lunch will be held on the lawn.

The Willis Zimmerman farm will be visited at 1:15 p.m., and the Harold McCullough farm at 2:30. Two rings of cattle are to be judged at each.

Dan McGrew, extension dairy specialist, will be the official judge, and any 4-H member with a dairy project may attend.

The Columbiana County 4-H Dairy Club will meet at the Dwain Hawkins farm on Route 558, a mile east of East Fairfield, June 27 at 8 p.m., according to Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture.

There will be a tour of the farm facilities and the judging of two rings of cattle.

The judging is scheduled in preparation for the dairy judging tour the following day.

Two clothing judging meetings have been scheduled for this area for county agents and professional persons who will be working with 4-H judging this year.

The first is June 27 at the Peoples Federal Building in Mansfield and the other at the Manor House, Punderson Lake, in Geauga County June 28.

The program at each will include the subject, "Philosophy of Judging," by Miss Bea Cleveland, associate leader of 4-H. Other subjects will be demonstrated along with group judging, sports clothes, complete costume and teaching through judging.

Miss Sandy Lee Glass, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glass of Lisbon Rd., Wellsville, is attending Camp Aldersgate this week at Carrollton.

She received a working award as a camp councilor and is president of the Helping Hands 4-H Club of Glasgow. The camp is being held through Friday.

Twins ½ Game Back; Indians Lose, Angels Take 3rd, Pass Yanks

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Angels took over third place from the Yankees in the American League race Tuesday night by beating the Yanks' favorite patsies—the Kansas City Athletics. Their 7-4 decision was the Angels' sixth straight victory over the A's and their ninth in 12 meetings this year.

Boston knocked off Cleveland's front-running Indians 4-2, Minnesota moved up by rapping Chicago 9-4, Baltimore won its fifth in a row and handed the Yanks their fifth successive defeat, 3-1, and Frank Lary recorded his first victory in over two months with a neat six-hitter as Detroit blanked Washington 5-0.

The results left Cleveland a bare half game ahead of the Twins, Los Angeles 2½ back in third, and the Yankees slumped to fourth, three games behind the Indians.

The Angels socked four homers, three doubles and collected six walks against four Kansas City pitchers but had to struggle to beat the A's.

Angel starter Ken McBride homered off loser John Wyatt in the third and Leon Wagner raised his league-leading total to 19 when he connected with a man on in the fifth.

The Orioles, shut out the last four times Chuck Estrada started, finally gave the hard-throwing right-hander enough runs to win against the Yankees. Brooks Robinson paced Baltimore with a tie-breaking homer against Ralph Terry in the sixth inning and a run-scoring single in the eighth.

Harmon Killebrew launched Minnesota's assault on the White Sox when he cracked his 15th homer with one on in the first off Juan Pizarro. The Twins got two more off the Chicago lefty in the second on four straight walks and a sacrifice fly, then ripped Don Zanni with a five-run explosion in the fifth. Southpaw Jim Kaat slugged a homer, Vic Power did the same, and Bob Allison followed with another with two aboard. With all this support Kaat breezed to his seventh victory in 11 decisions.

Bill Monbouquette cooled off the Indians, who had won four in a row and nine of 12, pitching a four-hitter. The Boston right-hander had a shutout going until the eighth, when a walk and Gene Green's pinch homer gave Cleveland its two runs.

Lary posted his second victory of the season after eight futile tries and won for the first time since April 13 with his shutout over Washington. The 23-game winner of last year, hampered by a sore shoulder recently and now 2-4, limited the Senators to six singles, walked one and struck out five.

Match Play Gets Started In Coed Golf Tournament

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—Defending champion Judy Hoetmer of Washington got into the act today as match play in the 18th Women's Collegiate Golf Tournament began.

Miss Robinson, who resembles and plays much like 1960 champion Jo Anne Gunderson, missed Miss Gunderson's course record by two strokes.

Miss Hoetmer will meet Sharon Miller of Central Michigan in a first round match today while Miss Robinson plays Sue Maxwell of Oklahoma City University.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Stone Street, who won the Kentucky Derby in 1908, is credited with running the event in the slowest winning time in its history. Stone Street covered the mile and one-quarter in 2:15 1-5.

Reds Throw Bucs 8 Games Back

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Don Drysdale of Los Angeles notched his 11th victory of the season Tuesday night as the Dodgers moved out to a 2½ game advantage over the faltering San Francisco Giants. Last season Drysdale didn't get No. 11 until Sept. 4.

His steady nine-hitter and his eighth complete game, along with some lusty hitting by Frank Howard, helped the Dodgers to a 3-2 victory over St. Louis while San Francisco was taking a 6-4 drubbing by the surprising Houston Colts.

In other National League games, Cincinnati took over third from Pittsburgh by edging the Pirates 2-1, Chicago came from behind to beat Philadelphia 9-5 and the New York Mets broke a seven-game losing string, 6-5, against Milwaukee.

Howard's 10th homer of the season got the Dodgers off to a 2-0 lead in the first and he scored the winner on a misplayed grounder in the seventh. He was on third, Ron Fairly on first and there was one out when Duke Snider bounced back to the pitcher, Lindy McDaniel, who unaccountably threw to first while Howard lumbered in with the winning run.

Houston right-hander Dick Farrel choked off a Giant rally in the ninth as the Colts won their fifth in six starts and knocked San Francisco another game off the pace. The Colts belted Billy O'Dell (7-6) for three runs in the first and were never headed.

Jerry Lynch's single, his third hit of the game, drove in Don Blasingame with the run that broke a 1-1 tie and pulled Cincinnati into a third-place tie with the Pirates. It was the Reds sixth victory in seven games with Pittsburgh.

The Cubs collected their fifth straight victory in the comeback against the Phillies. Philadelphia had a 5-3 lead going into the ninth, but the Cubs jammed in six runs against five Philadelphia pitchers.

Roger Craig's (4-9) seven-hitter and home runs by Gene Woodling and Joe Christopher were the big items in the Mets victory over Milwaukee, the sixth time in 10 meetings the league's tail-enders have beaten the Braves. Eddie Mathews had his 12th homer for the losers.

Cicada Goes In Oaks Test

NEW YORK (AP)—Cicada, the tough tomboy filly who could beat most of the 3-year-old colts if her owner gave the word, shoots for a cool $100,000 Saturday in the Coaching Club American Oaks at Belmont Park.

The greatest money-winning gal racer in history may be opposed by seven or eight rivals in the 1¼-mile finale of the rich New York triple crown for fillies. She has beaten most of the opposition and will be an odds-on favorite to annex the 13th stakes of her brilliant career.

The bay daughter of Bryan G.-Satsuma from C. T. Chenery's Meadow Stable whipped King Ranch's Tamarona in the Acorn Stakes at Aqueduct, and trimmed E. Barry Ryan's Firm Policy in the Mother Goose Stakes at Belmont three weeks ago. The Oaks is the triple finale, and may be her hardest test. No filly has won all three.

Firm Policy and Tamarona, along with the Wheatley Stable's Batter Up and Ogden Phipps' Broadway, an entry trained by Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, are expected to start, along with James Cox Brady's Upswept and C. V. Whitney's Jazz Queen.

Report On Ticket Sale Encouraging

An encouraging report on the sale of season football tickets was given by Harry McConville, chairman of the ticket committee, at a meeting of the East Liverpool High School Athletic Board Tuesday night.

McConville reported 350 season tickets sold, which already is an increase over last year's total. Of this total, 40 per cent are new season ticketholders. The advance sale of season tickets will continue until Sept. 1.

The board announced that Niles High School already has requested some 2,000 tickets for the opener at Patterson Field Sept. 8.

No complimentary tickets will be given to opposing scouts this year and letters have been mailed to all schools involved.

Pipoly Leads In Ohio Pre-Senior Golf Play

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Youngstown, appropriately, still has the best of the "young old" (age 40-54) golfers going into today's second and final round of the seventh annual Ohio Pre-Seniors Golf Tournament.

Steve Pipoly of the Mahoning County metropolis posted a 36-34 —70 Tuesday to take the halfway lead by two strokes over Springfield's Joe Gray and Cadiz' A. D. Meder, who matched par at Springfield Country Club. Thus, Pipoly was the man to beat for the crown worn the past two years by a fellow Youngstowner, Tom Jones Jr.

Glenmoor Scores 15-4 Win Over Penn Ave.

Glenmoor U. P. scored a 15-4 rout over Penn Ave. Methodist in a Y-Church League softball game Tuesday.

In another game, Terry Cannon pitched and batted Calvary Methodist to its fourth straight victory, 7-3, over Orchard Grove Methodist at the Beaver Local field.

Morrison was the losing pitcher. Calvary continued in first place.

George D. Widener's Jaipur was first or second in his first nine races then finished out of the money in the 1962 Preakness.

Match Play Gets Started In Coed Golf Tournament

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—Defending champion Judy Hoetmer of Washington got into the act today as match play in the 18th Women's Collegiate Golf Tournament began.

Miss Robinson, who resembles and plays much like 1960 champion Jo Anne Gunderson, missed Miss Gunderson's course record by two strokes.

Miss Hoetmer will meet Sharon Miller of Central Michigan in a first round match today while Miss Robinson plays Sue Maxwell of Oklahoma City University.

Slowest Winner

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Stone Street, who won the Kentucky Derby in 1908, is credited with running the event in the slowest winning time in its history. Stone Street covered the mile and one-quarter in 2:15 1-5.

Reds Throw Bucs 8 Games Back

LA's Drysdale Wins 11th

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Don Drysdale of Los Angeles notched his 11th victory of the season Tuesday night as the Dodgers moved out to a 2½ game advantage over the faltering San Francisco Giants. Last season Drysdale didn't get No. 11 until Sept. 4.

His steady nine-hitter and his eighth complete game, along with some lusty hitting by Frank Howard, helped the Dodgers to a 3-2 victory over St. Louis while San Francisco was taking a 6-4 drubbing by the surprising Houston Colts.

In other National League games, Cincinnati took over third from Pittsburgh by edging the Pirates 2-1, Chicago came from behind to beat Philadelphia 9-5 and the New York Mets broke a seven-game losing string, 6-5, against Milwaukee.

Howard's 10th homer of the season got the Dodgers off to a 2-0 lead in the first and he scored the winner on a misplayed grounder in the seventh. He was on third, Ron Fairly on first and there was one out when Duke Snider bounced back to the pitcher, Lindy McDaniel, who unaccountably threw to first while Howard lumbered in with the winning run.

Houston right-hander Dick Farrel choked off a Giant rally in the ninth as the Colts won their fifth in six starts and knocked San Francisco another game off the pace. The Colts belted Billy O'Dell (7-6) for three runs in the first and were never headed.

Jerry Lynch's single, his third hit of the game, drove in Don Blasingame with the run that broke a 1-1 tie and pulled Cincinnati into a third-place tie with the Pirates. It was the Reds sixth victory in seven games with Pittsburgh.

The Cubs collected their fifth straight victory in the comeback against the Phillies. Philadelphia had a 5-3 lead going into the ninth, but the Cubs jammed in six runs against five Philadelphia pitchers.

Roger Craig's (4-9) seven-hitter and home runs by Gene Woodling and Joe Christopher were the big items in the Mets victory over Milwaukee, the sixth time in 10 meetings the league's tail-enders have beaten the Braves. Eddie Mathews had his 12th homer for the losers.

Cicada Goes In Oaks Test

NEW YORK (AP)—Cicada, the tough tomboy filly who could beat most of the 3-year-old colts if her owner gave the word, shoots for a cool $100,000 Saturday in the Coaching Club American Oaks at Belmont Park.

The greatest money-winning gal racer in history may be opposed by seven or eight rivals in the 1¼-mile finale of the rich New York triple crown for fillies. She has beaten most of the opposition and will be an odds-on favorite to annex the 13th stakes of her brilliant career.

The bay daughter of Bryan G.-Satsuma from C. T. Chenery's Meadow Stable whipped King Ranch's Tamarona in the Acorn Stakes at Aqueduct, and trimmed E. Barry Ryan's Firm Policy in the Mother Goose Stakes at Belmont three weeks ago. The Oaks is the triple finale, and may be her hardest test. No filly has won all three.

Firm Policy and Tamarona, along with the Wheatley Stable's Batter Up and Ogden Phipps' Broadway, an entry trained by Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, are expected to start, along with James Cox Brady's Upswept and C. V. Whitney's Jazz Queen.

Report On Ticket Sale Encouraging

An encouraging report on the sale of season football tickets was given by Harry McConville, chairman of the ticket committee, at a meeting of the East Liverpool High School Athletic Board Tuesday night.

McConville reported 350 season tickets sold, which already is an increase over last year's total. Of this total, 40 per cent are new season ticketholders. The advance sale of season tickets will continue until Sept. 1.

The board announced that Niles High School already has requested some 2,000 tickets for the opener at Patterson Field Sept. 8.

No complimentary tickets will be given to opposing scouts this year and letters have been mailed to all schools involved.

Pipoly Leads In Ohio Pre-Senior Golf Play

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Youngstown, appropriately, still has the best of the "young old" (age 40-54) golfers going into today's second and final round of the seventh annual Ohio Pre-Seniors Golf Tournament.

Steve Pipoly of the Mahoning County metropolis posted a 36-34 —70 Tuesday to take the halfway lead by two strokes over Springfield's Joe Gray and Cadiz' A. D. Meder, who matched par at Springfield Country Club. Thus, Pipoly was the man to beat for the crown worn the past two years by a fellow Youngstowner, Tom Jones Jr.

Glenmoor Scores 15-4 Win Over Penn Ave.

Glenmoor U. P. scored a 15-4 rout over Penn Ave. Methodist in a Y-Church League softball game Tuesday.

In another game, Terry Cannon pitched and batted Calvary Methodist to its fourth straight victory, 7-3, over Orchard Grove Methodist at the Beaver Local field.

Morrison was the losing pitcher. Calvary continued in first place.

George D. Widener's Jaipur was first or second in his first nine races then finished out of the money in the 1962 Preakness.

Ashcroft Hits Grand Slam To Lead Local Merchants

Muscular Rich Ashcroft, a former all-around athlete at South Side High School, pounded a grand slam home run to spark the East Liverpool Merchants in a 10-4 victory over East Palestine Golden Dawn Tuesday at Patterson Field in a County - City League battle.

The left - handed batting first baseman stepped to the plate in the fifth inning with East Liverpool trailing 4-3 and promptly belted a drive which bounced up against the fence in right center field sending home three runners in front of him.

Ashcroft also stroked a long double and a single in four trips to the plate.

Prentice, Bob Campbell and Kenny Cunningham collected two safeties each in an 11-hit attack.

East Liverpool plays at East Palestine tonight.

Milliron's Gain Double LL Victory

Milliron's, currently leading the American Division of the Little League, collected its victories in pairs Tuesday.

Milliron's defeated Veteran Plate Glass, 14-13, in a game which was completed from June 11 when the score was tied 13-13. Following the completion of that contest, Milliron's picked up a 6-1 victory over the same Veteran nine. Mike Caruso drove in the winning run in the 14-13 contest.

The two decisions put Milliron's in front with a 4-0 record. Dan Cunningham supplied the punch for Milliron's with two home runs, while Bartram doubled and Kinsey singled twice. Dan Standley and Bob Bickar stroked two hits each for the Vets.

In the National Division, McBurney's moved into the lead with an 11-8 win over Chester American Legion. Pridemore was the winning pitcher while Smith and Cooper had three hits each for the winners.

The Medics outlasted Burbicks, 13-11, with a big eight-run third inning the difference. Bill Hoyt was the winning pitcher while Wayne Stewart blasted two home runs and Rex Campbell one in powering the Medics attack. For Burbicks, Paul Berhard tripled and singled.

Rotary Speaker Reveals Bucs' 'Hidden' Expenses

Ever wonder about the size of the electric bill handed the Pittsburgh Pirates baseball club for operating lights for night games?

It's nothing to sneeze at — especially for those frequent extra-inning marathons at Forbes Field —with the lights costing the Pirates $150 an hour when lit.

And the club shells out $75 each for two maintenance men just for flipping the light switches on and off for the games, Jack H. Berger told the Rotary Club Tuesday in the Travelers Hotel.

The Pirates' public relations director cited the cost of night games as just another expense in a seemingly never - ending list involved in operating a major league team.

$15,000 to $20,000 a year for dry cleaning of Pirate uniforms.

Expenses of maintaining a ground crew of 25-to-30 men hired on a yearly basis, part - time workers to usher, sell tickets and man the turnstiles, and a full-time office staff of 30 kept up to their necks in work on contracts, salary schedules, ticket distribution and other items. Berger said the figures are approximate.

The Pirates, currently in fourth place in the National League, will have to lure 1,300,000 fans to Forbes Field this year to "break even," Berger told the club.

Two years ago when the Pirates won the pennant, the figure was exceeded. But before that, in the period when Pittsburgh lingered in the cellar consistently, the club owners checked off a loss of $5 million over one three-year stretch, Berger said.

"BUT they had patience and the club is in a healthy state now," the public relations director declared.

Citing the popularity of the Pirates in the district, Berger said a survey three years ago revealed that 60 to 70% of Forbes Field customers came from outside Allegheny County — or to be more specific, from the Tri-State Area.

"They're called the Pittsburgh Pirates, but the team belongs to those who support it. They could aptly be called the Tri-State Pirates," Berger declared.

Berger also added that a survey in Milwaukee revealed that in the first five years of its major league club, the Braves, the city benefited by $27 million not spent there otherwise. The revenue came from fans shopping, eating, using public transportation and having their cars serviced there, Berger said. Baltimore also reaped similar benefits from the presence of the Orioles, a survey indicated.

TURNING from finances to team prospects, Berger declined to predict where the Buccos will finish in the final National League standings.

Berger did say, however, that the Pirates "appear to stack up favorably in comparison of talent" with the nine other major league clubs.

Injuries, luck and performance by two key pitchers will be vital factors in the Pirates' bid to win another flag, Berger said.

"If we have no costly injuries, lots of luck, and Vernon Law and Joe Gibbon return to form, the Pirates have a good chance," Berger said.

He added that the Pirates found out early this season that they can't win with the best of pitching without an offensive attack to go with it. The hot streak of outfielder Roberto Clemente, hitting over .400 for June, is a bright spot but Dick Stuart continues hot and cold, Berger pointed out.

Reiterating a comment he made on a television interview in Milwaukee, Berger said "If any area in the U. S. deserves a winner, it is this Tri-State Area."

"The fans have stuck by us through many lean years, and president John W. Galbreath and others right down the line are deeply indebted for this," Berger continued.

Berger also touched on Pirate farm clubs, major league expansion and the bonus system in a wide - ranging talk. He was introduced by Dean Wilhelm, program chairman. Dr. R. Jay Kinsey, president, presided.

Ashcroft Hits Grand Slam To Lead Local Merchants

Muscular Rich Ashcroft, a former all-around athlete at South Side High School, pounded a grand slam home run to spark the East Liverpool Merchants in a 10-4 victory over East Palestine Golden Dawn Tuesday at Patterson Field in a County - City League battle.

The left - handed batting first baseman stepped to the plate in the fifth inning with East Liverpool trailing 4-3 and promptly belted a drive which bounced up against the fence in right center field sending home three runners in front of him.

Ashcroft also stroked a long double and a single in four trips to the plate.

Prentice, Bob Campbell and Kenny Cunningham collected two safeties each in an 11-hit attack.

East Liverpool plays at East Palestine tonight.

A hit batter, two walks and an error accounted for the Dentist's first two runs. A single by Mike Smith, a two-base throwing error and another single by Don Welch was good for two more in the second frame.

Tom Betz was the winning pitcher and gave up four hits. Jim Hissom was checked with the loss and was touched for the same number of safeties.

Milliron's Gain Double LL Victory

Milliron's, currently leading the American Division of the Little League, collected its victories in pairs Tuesday.

Milliron's defeated Veteran Plate Glass, 14-13, in a game which was completed from June 11 when the score was tied 13-13. Following the completion of that contest, Milliron's picked up a 6-1 victory over the same Veteran nine. Mike Caruso drove in the winning run in the 14-13 contest.

The two decisions put Milliron's in front with a 4-0 record. Dan Cunningham supplied the punch for Milliron's with two home runs, while Bartram doubled and Kinsey singled twice. Dan Standley and Bob Bickar stroked two hits each for the Vets.

In the National Division, McBurney's moved into the lead with an 11-8 win over Chester American Legion. Pridemore was the winning pitcher while Smith and Cooper had three hits each for the winners.

The Medics outlasted Burbicks, 13-11, with a big eight-run third inning the difference. Bill Hoyt was the winning pitcher while Wayne Stewart blasted two home runs and Rex Campbell one in powering the Medics attack. For Burbicks, Paul Berhard tripled and singled.

Rotary Speaker Reveals Bucs' 'Hidden' Expenses

Ever wonder about the size of the electric bill handed the Pittsburgh Pirates baseball club for operating lights for night games?

It's nothing to sneeze at — especially for those frequent extra-inning marathons at Forbes Field —with the lights costing the Pirates $150 an hour when lit.

And the club shells out $75 each for two maintenance men just for flipping the light switches on and off for the games, Jack H. Berger told the Rotary Club Tuesday in the Travelers Hotel.

The Pirates' public relations director cited the cost of night games as just another expense in a seemingly never - ending list involved in operating a major league team.

$100,000 a year for plane transportation of players from one series to another, plus housing costs and $10 meal allowances daily for each player on the roster.

$15,000 to $20,000 a year for dry cleaning of Pirate uniforms.

Expenses of maintaining a ground crew of 25-to-30 men hired on a yearly basis, part - time workers to usher, sell tickets and man the turnstiles, and a full-time office staff of 30 kept up to their necks in work on contracts, salary schedules, ticket distribution and other items. Berger said the figures are approximate.

The Pirates, currently in fourth place in the National League, will have to lure 1,300,000 fans to Forbes Field this year to "break even," Berger told the club.

Two years ago when the Pirates won the pennant, the figure was exceeded. But before that, in the period when Pittsburgh lingered in the cellar consistently, the club owners checked off a loss of $5 million over one three-year stretch, Berger said.

"BUT they had patience and the club is in a healthy state now," the public relations director declared.

Citing the popularity of the Pirates in the district, Berger said a survey three years ago revealed that 60 to 70% of Forbes Field customers came from outside Allegheny County — or to be more specific, from the Tri-State Area.

"They're called the Pittsburgh Pirates, but the team belongs to those who support it. They could aptly be called the Tri-State Pirates," Berger declared.

Berger also added that a survey in Milwaukee revealed that in the first five years of its major league club, the Braves, the city benefited by $27 million not spent there otherwise. The revenue came from fans shopping, eating, using public transportation and having their cars serviced there, Berger said. Baltimore also reaped similar benefits from the presence of the Orioles, a survey indicated.

TURNING from finances to team prospects, Berger declined to predict where the Buccos will finish in the final National League standings.

Berger did say, however, that the Pirates "appear to stack up favorably in comparison of talent" with the nine other major league clubs.

Injuries, luck and performance by two key pitchers will be vital factors in the Pirates' bid to win another flag, Berger said.

"If we have no costly injuries, lots of luck, and Vernon Law and Joe Gibbon return to form, the Pirates have a good chance," Berger said.

He added that the Pirates found out early this season that they can't win with the best of pitching without an offensive attack to go with it. The hot streak of outfielder Roberto Clemente, hitting over .400 for June, is a bright spot but Dick Stuart continues hot and cold, Berger pointed out.

Reiterating a comment he made on a television interview in Milwaukee, Berger said "If any area in the U. S. deserves a winner, it is this Tri-State Area."

"The fans have stuck by us through many lean years, and president John W. Galbreath and others right down the line are deeply indebted for this," Berger continued.

Berger also touched on Pirate farm clubs, major league expansion and the bonus system in a wide - ranging talk. He was introduced by Dean Wilhelm, program chairman. Dr. R. Jay Kinsey, president, presided.

FIELD AND STREAM

By R. L. LIDE

They don't come in the "whopper" class, yet it is not uncommon to get all the 7-inch 'gills you want. Crappies are now leveling off to the 7-inch class, but there are plenty of 9-and-10-inchers being taken around sundown and at daybreak.

They only reason more bass are not being taken after dark is because not many people fish for them at that time.

I hear they are active around midnight when surface poppers do the trick. Channel cat also are being taken from 9 to 17 inches. Channels were stocked for three years and there are three different sizes that run from 9 to 17 inches.

Some people don't know one cat from another, but the ones with the forked tails are channels. The others, and most prevalent, are bullheads either brown, black or yellow.

PRETTY SOON now the fish management section will release copper sulphate in Zepernick Lake. The reason for this is to activate the fish.

For some reason when copper sulphate is placed in the water the fish move around. There will be men on hand daily making a creel census in order to determine how much the fish take increases after the lake is treated.

John Batzli of R. D. 4, Lisbon, called me to come out and see an unusual groundhog he had killed. It bordered on being an albino, but was too much on the tan side. I would like to have had it mounted, but it had been out of refrigeration. I never saw one like it before.

THERE'S A good hatch of wood ducks this year and they can be seen on most any body of water, including the swampy puddles.

Green-head mallards come second among the native wild ducks. There are a pair of bluebills (scaup ducks) and a pair of coot on Lake Pna, a private lake near New Alexandria. If they happen to nest it could be the first known to nest in Columbiana County.

Two young boys were walking along Rt. 172 carrying a snapping turtle weighing about 10 pounds. I inquired where they got it and they said "out of gramp's farm pond". They went on to say two really big ones got away. I asked them if they weren't afraid of getting bitten. They said "you won't if you know which end to grab hold of". Maybe I'll learn to quit asking foolish questions.

NLRB To Air Unfair Labor Practice Count

CLEVELAND (AP)—An unfair labor practice charge against East Ohio Gas Co. will be heard Aug. 6 by the National Labor Relations Board. The Independent Natural Gas workers filed the charge, accusing the utility of refusal to bargain.

East Ohio said it had held off in negotiating a contract to replace one expired May 31 because the union was being replaced as bargaining agent by the AFL-CIO Building Service Employes Union. Affected are nearly 2,600 employes of East Ohio here and in Akron, Canton, Youngstown, Warren, Wooster, Cadiz and Ashtabula.

Federal Jury Indicts 3 Young Cincinnatians

CHICAGO (AP) — A federal grand jury has indicted three young Cincinnatians arrested last week in suburban Wheeling on charges of kidnaping, conspiracy and interstate traffic in women for immoral purposes. Maximum penalty on the kidnaping charge would be death.

CHICAGO (AP) — Emmy Construction Co. of Millersport, Ohio, has received a $250,000 contract from the General Services Administration for extension, alterations and modernization of the Maysville, Ky., post office.

15-Hit Attack By Woodbine Nets 2nd Win

Woodbine cashed in on its second victory in six outings with a 15-hit attack that netted an 11-3 win over George Bright's Tuesday in the Pony League.

Home runs by Frank Tice and Tom Hansen and a three-for-four night by third baseman Emory Brewer paved the way for the Laundrymen. Nick Marchbanks, Landis and Johnson all added two hits to the attack.

A five-run first inning eventually proved enough runs for the victory. Gary Sanford was the winning pitcher and spaced nine hits. Bright's committed five errors. Cunningham, Vaughn and Hanzelman collected two hits apiece for the losers.

Fireman Injured

CLEVELAND (AP) — One fireman suffered face burns when a third-floor ceiling collapsed on him and another punctured his hand on a nail Tuesday fighting a fire in an unoccupied three-story store and apartment building. The building is to be razed for the St. Vincent Center project. Arson investigators said children in the neighborhood told them two teenage boys ran from the building shortly before the blaze.

No Rematch Comes Up In Yank-Oriole Game

BALTIMORE (AP)—The ballyhooed "rematch" of fighting baseball managers didn't come off Tuesday night, but fans of the Baltimore Orioles couldn't have cared less.

Baltimore dispatched the slumping New York Yankees 3-1 in the quiet, businesslike manner usually associated with Yankee victories. It was the fifth loss in a row for New York and the fifth consecutive triumph for the surging Orioles.

The last time the two clubs met, in New York's Yankee Stadium on June 11, Baltimore Manager Billy Hitchcock and Ralph Houk, the Yankee skipper, almost came to blows.

The giant-sized rhubarb was set in motion after Oriole rookie John (Boog) Powell was beaned by a pitch from Yankee left-hander Bud Daley. When the Yanks came to bat, Baltimore pitcher Robin Roberts sent a pitch sailing over the head of Roger Maris and the shoving match began.

Baltimore fans, aroused over the possibility of a rematch, turned out in force. The crowd of 38,703 was the largest of the year in Memorial Stadium.

"I bet a lot of people were disappointed when I met Houk at home plate and didn't punch him in the nose," Hitchcock said.

Registration Now Open For Tennis Tournament

Registration is now open for young tennis players in the tri-state area planning to enter the East Liverpool Tennis Club's tournament June 29-30—July 1 at Thompson Park.

Singles competition is planned for boys and girls divisions in five age groups—12 and younger; 12 to 14; 14 to 16; 16 to 18, and 18 and older.

Registration forms may be obtained at the YMCA, Thompson Park Pool, Heimies and the Jordan Sohio Service Station in the East End Laurin Stacey, club president, said.

Registration forms are to be filled out and turned in at the same distribution locations before noon June 28. Drawings will be made June 28, and will be posted at the park courts June 29, with initial play slated for 5:30 p. m. June 29.

Young players throughout the area are eligible to enter the tournament, the first sponsored by the newly organized club.

Stacey said it is hoped the play will serve as a launching board for a further organized tennis program in the district.

Cards Manager Says Drysdale Dirty Player

LOS ANGELES (AP)—St. Louis Manager Johnny Keane, angered on two counts by the conduct of Don Drysdale, accuses the controversial Dodger pitcher of dirty play and promises:

"We'll retaliate any time we can."

"If Keane wants to retaliate, I'll be around all season."

Drysdale, who seems to become involved in at least one major controversy a season, picked up his 11th victory as the league-leading Dodgers beat the Cards for the second straight time, 3-2.

Yesterday's Stars

Batting — Jerry Lynch, Reds, drove in winning run with his third hit of the game in Cincinnati's 2-1 victory over Pittsburgh and scored the other Red run after slashing a triple.

Match Play Starts Today In NCAA Golf

By KEN ALYTA

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — Phase Two of the NCAA Golf Tournament starts today: Match play among 64 survivors of the starting field of 215.

Thirteen golfers will fight for five positions among the qualifiers. They shot 156 against the cut score of 155.

Kermit Zarley of Houston won the medal with a 140 total on rounds of 68-72. His first round 68 was one of only three sub-par rounds wrung from the unyielding Duke course, a par 71 test maesuring 6,828 yards.

Charles Layton of Georgia, quarter-finalist last year, had one of the two other sub par rounds, a 70, for a 143 qualifying score that tied him with Dick Dion of Duke and John Lotz of San Jose State.

Alone in fourth at 145 was James Gabrielson of Georgia, whose second round 70 completed the par battering.

Two rounds today and Thursday will be followed by semifinals Friday and the 36-hole final Saturday.

Houston clinched its sixth team title in seven years, regaining the crown it lost to Purdue. The Cougars had a four-man, 36-hole aggregate score of 588, 10 better than runnerup Oklahoma State.

Lake Swimming Ban Continues At Raccoon

Swimming still is prohibited at Raccoon Creek State Park while authorities investigate a problem believed caused by an asphalt base laid last fall, the park office said.

Swimming was stopped about a week ago. Water in the swimming area has been lowered about six feet to aid the investigation.

George Armstrong is park superintendent.

$85,000 Fire Loss

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Loss was tentatively set at $85,000 in a fire at an industrial building on the Southeast Side late Tuesday. The Blair Manufacturing Co., a machine shop, and the Myers Wholesale Co., jobber of plumbing supplies, shared the building which was severely damaged. No injuries were reported in the fire of unknown cause.

Adcock Feels Baseball Is Being Hit Farther

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe Adcock, who almost went down in baseball history as the only hitter ever to reach the Polo Grounds center field bleachers with a home run, thinks the ball is being belted further this year than ever before.

"Don't ask me why," said the giant Milwaukee Braves first baseman before today's doubleheader with the New York Mets. "but I've seen longer hits this year than ever before. Maybe it's because of a change in the air."

Back in 1953 Adcock hit a homer into the bleachers, the first ever. The Polo Grounds would have been torn down this year except that the Mets had nowhere to play while their own park was being built. So the old field on Coogan's Bluff was spared a year.

What happened?

"When I broke in with the Cincinnati Reds," he recalled, "a power guy like Ralph Kiner hit only one over that Cincinnati left field fence in three years.

"Now they've knocked down buildings all around the park, and it's no more trick to do it. Maybe there's a greater movement of air."

Dave Trimble Hurls Second No-Hitter For Georgetown

Georgetown's Dave Trimble posted his second no-hitter of the season when he blanked Frankfort Springs, 6-0, Monday in the South Side Hot Stove League's Senior Division.

Trimble with a 2-1 record now, fanned 18 batters last night. In three games, he has given up only two hits. Jerry Campbell supplied the punch for Georgetown by belting a home run.

FIELD AND STREAM

By R. L. LIDE

They don't come in the "whopper" class, yet it is not uncommon to get all the 7-inch 'gills you want. Crappies are now leveling off to the 7-inch class, but there are plenty of 9-and-10-inchers being taken around sundown and at daybreak.

They only reason more bass are not being taken after dark is because not many people fish for them at that time.

I hear they are active around midnight when surface poppers do the trick. Channel cat also are being taken from 9 to 17 inches. Channels were stocked for three years and there are three different sizes that run from 9 to 17 inches.

Some people don't know one cat from another, but the ones with the forked tails are channels. The others, and most prevalent, are bullheads either brown, black or yellow.

PRETTY SOON now the fish management section will release copper sulphate in Zepernick Lake. The reason for this is to activate the fish.

For some reason when copper sulphate is placed in the water the fish move around. There will be men on hand daily making a creel census in order to determine how much the fish take increases after the lake is treated.

John Batzli of R. D. 4, Lisbon, called me to come out and see an unusual groundhog he had killed. It bordered on being an albino, but was too much on the tan side. I would like to have had it mounted, but it had been out of refrigeration. I never saw one like it before.

THERE'S A good hatch of wood ducks this year and they can be seen on most any body of water, including the swampy puddles.

Green-head mallards come second among the native wild ducks. There are a pair of bluebills (scaup ducks) and a pair of coot on Lake Pna, a private lake near New Alexandria. If they happen to nest it could be the first known to nest in Columbiana County.

Two young boys were walking along Rt. 172 carrying a snapping turtle weighing about 10 pounds. I inquired where they got it and they said "out of gramp's farm pond". They went on to say two really big ones got away. I asked them if they weren't afraid of getting bitten. They said "you won't if you know which end to grab hold of". Maybe I'll learn to quit asking foolish questions.

NLRB To Air Unfair Labor Practice Count

CLEVELAND (AP)—An unfair labor practice charge against East Ohio Gas Co. will be heard Aug. 6 by the National Labor Relations Board. The Independent Natural Gas workers filed the charge, accusing the utility of refusal to bargain.

East Ohio said it had held off in negotiating a contract to replace one expired May 31 because the union was being replaced as bargaining agent by the AFL-CIO Building Service Employes Union. Affected are nearly 2,600 employes of East Ohio here and in Akron, Canton, Youngstown, Warren, Wooster, Cadiz and Ashtabula.

Federal Jury Indicts 3 Young Cincinnatians

CHICAGO (AP) — A federal grand jury has indicted three young Cincinnatians arrested last week in suburban Wheeling on charges of kidnaping, conspiracy and interstate traffic in women for immoral purposes. Maximum penalty on the kidnaping charge would be death.

15-Hit Attack By Woodbine Nets 2nd Win

Woodbine cashed in on its second victory in six outings with a 15-hit attack that netted an 11-3 win over George Bright's Tuesday in the Pony League.

Home runs by Frank Tice and Tom Hansen and a three-for-four night by third baseman Emory Brewer paved the way for the Laundrymen. Nick Marchbanks, Landis and Johnson all added two hits to the attack.

A five-run first inning eventually proved enough runs for the victory. Gary Sanford was the winning pitcher and spaced nine hits. Bright's committed five errors. Cunningham, Vaughn and Hanzelman collected two hits apiece for the losers.

CLEVELAND (AP) — One fireman suffered face burns when a third-floor ceiling collapsed on him and another punctured his hand on a nail Tuesday fighting a fire in an unoccupied three-story store and apartment building. The building is to be razed for the St. Vincent Center project. Arson investigators said children in the neighborhood told them two teenage boys ran from the building shortly before the blaze.

No Rematch Comes Up In Yank-Oriole Game

BALTIMORE (AP)—The ballyhooed "rematch" of fighting baseball managers didn't come off Tuesday night, but fans of the Baltimore Orioles couldn't have cared less.

Baltimore dispatched the slumping New York Yankees 3-1 in the quiet, businesslike manner usually associated with Yankee victories. It was the fifth loss in a row for New York and the fifth consecutive triumph for the surging Orioles.

The last time the two clubs met, in New York's Yankee Stadium on June 11, Baltimore Manager Billy Hitchcock and Ralph Houk, the Yankee skipper, almost came to blows.

The giant-sized rhubarb was set in motion after Oriole rookie John (Boog) Powell was beaned by a pitch from Yankee left-hander Bud Daley. When the Yanks came to bat, Baltimore pitcher Robin Roberts sent a pitch sailing over the head of Roger Maris and the shoving match began.

Baltimore fans, aroused over the possibility of a rematch, turned out in force. The crowd of 38,703 was the largest of the year in Memorial Stadium.

"I bet a lot of people were disappointed when I met Houk at home plate and didn't punch him in the nose," Hitchcock said.

Registration Now Open For Tennis Tournament

Registration is now open for young tennis players in the tri-state area planning to enter the East Liverpool Tennis Club's tournament June 29-30—July 1 at Thompson Park.

Singles competition is planned for boys and girls divisions in five age groups—12 and younger; 12 to 14; 14 to 16; 16 to 18, and 18 and older.

Registration forms may be obtained at the YMCA, Thompson Park Pool, Heimies and the Jordan Sohio Service Station in the East End Laurin Stacey, club president, said.

Registration forms are to be filled out and turned in at the same distribution locations before noon June 28. Drawings will be made June 28, and will be posted at the park courts June 29, with initial play slated for 5:30 p. m. June 29.

Young players throughout the area are eligible to enter the tournament, the first sponsored by the newly organized club.

Stacey said it is hoped the play will serve as a launching board for a further organized tennis program in the district.

Cards Manager Says Drysdale Dirty Player

LOS ANGELES (AP)—St. Louis Manager Johnny Keane, angered on two counts by the conduct of Don Drysdale, accuses the controversial Dodger pitcher of dirty play and promises:

"We'll retaliate any time we can."

Drysdale—who slid hard into second baseman Julian Javier Tuesday night and later brushed him back with a pitch—responded:

"If Keane wants to retaliate, I'll be around all season."

Drysdale, who seems to become involved in at least one major controversy a season, picked up his 11th victory as the league-leading Dodgers beat the Cards for the second straight time, 3-2.

Most Indices Show Boosts For 5 Months

Most business and industrial activity in the East Liverpool area in the first five months of 1962 attained levels ahead of the same time in 1961, the Chamber of Commerce said today in its monthly summary of conditions.

Twelve of 13 indices showed gains in the first five months, compared with the same time in 1961, while two were down, the Chamber said. A comparison of the same lines between April and May showed seven gains last month, with five declines and one unchanged.

In the yearly comparison, gains were shown in bank clearings and debits, industrial employment and payrolls, inbound and outbound railroad carloadings, river traffic and tonnage, new and used car sales and parking meter receipts, with a drop in the relief case load. Postal receipts were off from their 1961 level.

Payrolls at 12 area factories totaled $6,477,473 in the first five months of 1962, up 14.1 per cent from the $5,679,415 shown at the same time in 1961. They hit $1,190,031 in May, off 3.9 per cent from April's $1,238,478.

Storm Brews Over Which To Use

Congress Uses 3 Ways To Fashion U.S. Budget

The Treasury can be in the red or the black depending on which set of books you believe, Sam Dawson, AP business news analyst, points out in this, second of four self-contained articles on the debate over the federal budget.

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Uncle Sam has his fingers in so many things today that when he closes his books on this fiscal year June 30 it will be hard to say how much he is behind. One way of figuring will put him around $7 billion in the red, another at least $8.5 billion behind, and still a third will show him fairly close to breaking even.

And to add to the confusion the federal debt — which includes everything from your U.S. Savings Bonds to the Treasury's short-term IOUs at the banks—will be close to $300 billion, up almost $10 billion on the year.

There are three ways of fashioning a federal budget as variously used by Congress, the Budget Bureau, or the U.S. Treasury and some government and private economists. Each served a different purpose in showing the government's impact on financial or economic affairs.

A big storm, however, is blowing up as to which of the three should be used—the official or administrative budget, the cash budget or the national income accounts budget. Often when one shows a deficit, another shows a surplus. This is handy in political debate. But also sheds light on what is happening to the economy.

This, greatly simplified, is how the three budgets work:

The administrative budget, set up by Congress in 1921, is the one you hear about, the one the Congress debates.

It is proposed by a president in January and lists as expenditures sums for national defense, space research, foreign aid, agriculture, housong, commerce and transportation, health and welfare, education, veterans benefits, and interest — more than $9 billion a year in interest on the national debt.

The administrative budget also estimates receipts of individiual income taxes, corporate income taxes, excise, estate and gift taxes, and customs revenue.

But the U.S. Treasury receives and pays out money for other purposes — Social Security, veterans insurance, unemployment benefits, highway and other trust funds. So it has a cash budget.

But of late many economists hold the even the cash budget gives less than an accurate picture. So this year, for the first time, President Kennedy offered Congress still a third summary of federal finances—the national income accounts.

This was devised by the Department of Commerce. It shows not what the Treasury has collected, but what has been put aside for tax payments. For example, what a corporation builds up to meet future tax bills—funds it can't spend in the business or commit for expansion.

Budget Director David E. Bell says that this fiscal year corporate tax accruals will run $3 billion higher than corporate tax receipts.

National income accounts also exclude government loans from the spending side of the ledger, holding these will be paid back and aren't like salaries — money paid out and gone forever.

These are the various types of budgets the President proposes as subjects for a serious dialogue—and the debate could be loud and long.

Cleveland Resident Visits At Salineville

Mrs. Emma Whelan, Mrs. Valeria Stephens and Miss Myrtle Strabley spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Neal Strabley of Salem.

Mrs. Don McCord, Miss Ruth McNicol and Mrs. Don Hirst won bridge prizes at a meeting of the NALA Club Friday with Mrs. Martin Adams of R. D. 3. Mrs. McCord received a gift from a secret pal. Lunch was served.

Mrs. John Ewing and children of Lisbon R. D. 4 visited here Saturday.

Budget Fight Looms Today At Boys State

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — The Gibson administration at Buckeye Boys State, estimating it would take $6,769,800 (in imaginary money) to operate the state, faced a possible battle over the budget today.

Federalist Gov. David Gibson of Warren was to submit the budget, prepared by Finance Director Tim Dix of Kent, to a Nationalist-dominated General Assembly.

Thus the teen-agers participating in the American Legion's annual self -government exercise were in another true-to-life situation as activities at the temporary state on the Ohio University campus progressed.

National Guard and Naval Reserve units of 130 boys each were organized under Adj. Gen. Alan Lawver of Louisville. His civil defense director appeared to be a good choice — James Mason of Wright-Patterson Air Force Base.

The 1,200-plus Boys State citizens, who heard FBI special agent Don Hanning of Washington, D.C., at Tuesday night's assembly, this evening are to hear talks by R. C. (Scotty) Young, lecturer on Americanism, and Thomas Cunningham of Steubenville, a West Point cadet and former Boys Stater.

Envelope Arrives, But No Diploma!

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It cost Western Reserve University $1.02 to send a very fancy envelope from Cleveland to Columbus. There was, however, supposed to be a diploma in it.

Stanley E. Rosewater of Columbus had just completed his first year of medical school at Ohio State University and, by virtue of this, also officially completed his four - year bachelor of science course at WRU.

The fancy envelope arrived Tuesday at the Rosewater household—but someone had forgotten to include the all-important sheepskin.

Lockport (Ill.) High School Wins National Band Honors

MASON CITY, Iowa (AP)—The Lockport, Ill., high school band, whose veteran director stresses musicianship, not showmanship, began a whirlwind 10-day tour today as national high school marching band champion.

Director Ernest Caneva's 103-member band won the contest Tuesday night over 27 other bands from all parts of the United States without so much as one scantily clad majorette.

The contest was held in conjunction with the 24th annual North Iowa Band Festival and the press premiere of Warner Bros.' screen presentation of Meredith Willson's "The Music Man."

More than 100,000 persons turned out for the all-day spectacle, which included a gigantic parade of 119 bands, 43 floats, 84 beauty queens and stars of Hollywood and Broadway.

It was the biggest parade of bands in the city's 109-year history.

A crowd of about 15,000 was on hand for the awards presentations at Roosevelt Field and to see the celebrities.

Willson, a native of Mason City and extremely popular in his hometown, was made an honorary colonel by Gov. Norman Erbe.

Robert Preston, star of the Broadway and Hollywood versions of "The Music Man," drew a laugh when he said, "Meredith and I always shake hands when we meet, or even kiss, but now he's a colonel and I will have to salute him."

Besides the tour to help promote the movie, the Lockport band won $10,719 worth of musical instruments. That's more than twice what civic organizations raised to send the band here for the competition.

Caneva, 54, who has seen his band win many honors in his 30 years as supervisor of music in Lockport, said his is principally a music organization.

"I am not opposed to showmanship," he said, "but the music does suffer if there is too much of it."

In contrast to most of the other bands displaying their wares, Lockport's uniforms bordered on the severe. Skirts were long and stockings black. The band has a color guard but no majorettes.

The judges awarded second place and a $1,940 electronic organ to Bossier City, La. Then came Lebanon, Pa.; Plainview, Tex., and Montgomery, Ala.

Poland Seeks To Curb Car Thievery At Fair

POZNAN, Poland (AP)—Police roadblocks have been thrown up around this central Polish city to stop car thievery at the Poznan International Trade Fair. Fifteen cars have been stolen since the opening of the fair 10 days ago brought an invasion of automobiles from throughout Europe.

The victims include the director of the fair, Adam Askanas.

Modern recipes for custard pie usually suggest testing for doneness by inserting a silver knife near the center. That's because heat will be retained after the pie comes out of the oven and finish the setting of the custard filling.

Congress Uses 3 Ways To Fashion U.S. Budget

The Treasury can be in the red or the black depending on which set of books you believe, Sam Dawson, AP business news analyst, points out in this, second of four self-contained articles on the debate over the federal budget.

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Uncle Sam has his fingers in so many things today that when he closes his books on this fiscal year June 30 it will be hard to say how much he is behind. One way of figuring will put him around $7 billion in the red, another at least $8.5 billion behind, and still a third will show him fairly close to breaking even.

And to add to the confusion the federal debt — which includes everything from your U.S. Savings Bonds to the Treasury's short-term IOUs at the banks—will be close to $300 billion, up almost $10 billion on the year.

There are three ways of fashioning a federal budget as variously used by Congress, the Budget Bureau, or the U.S. Treasury and some government and private economists. Each served a different purpose in showing the government's impact on financial or economic affairs.

A big storm, however, is blowing up as to which of the three should be used—the official or administrative budget, the cash budget or the national income accounts budget. Often when one shows a deficit, another shows a surplus. This is handy in political debate. But also sheds light on what is happening to the economy.

This, greatly simplified, is how the three budgets work:

The administrative budget, set up by Congress in 1921, is the one you hear about, the one the Congress debates.

It is proposed by a president in January and lists as expenditures sums for national defense, space research, foreign aid, agriculture, housong, commerce and transportation, health and welfare, education, veterans benefits, and interest — more than $9 billion a year in interest on the national debt.

The administrative budget also estimates receipts of individiual income taxes, corporate income taxes, excise, estate and gift taxes, and customs revenue.

But the U.S. Treasury receives and pays out money for other purposes — Social Security, veterans insurance, unemployment benefits, highway and other trust funds. So it has a cash budget.

But of late many economists hold the even the cash budget gives less than an accurate picture. So this year, for the first time, President Kennedy offered Congress still a third summary of federal finances—the national income accounts.

This was devised by the Department of Commerce. It shows not what the Treasury has collected, but what has been put aside for tax payments. For example, what a corporation builds up to meet future tax bills—funds it can't spend in the business or commit for expansion.

Budget Director David E. Bell says that this fiscal year corporate tax accruals will run $3 billion higher than corporate tax receipts.

National income accounts also exclude government loans from the spending side of the ledger, holding these will be paid back and aren't like salaries — money paid out and gone forever.

These are the various types of budgets the President proposes as subjects for a serious dialogue—and the debate could be loud and long.

Cleveland Resident Visits At Salineville

Mrs. Emma Whelan, Mrs. Valeria Stephens and Miss Myrtle Strabley spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Neal Strabley of Salem.

Mrs. Don McCord, Miss Ruth McNicol and Mrs. Don Hirst won bridge prizes at a meeting of the NALA Club Friday with Mrs. Martin Adams of R. D. 3. Mrs. McCord received a gift from a secret pal. Lunch was served.

Mrs. John Ewing and children of Lisbon R. D. 4 visited here Saturday.

Budget Fight Looms Today At Boys State

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — The Gibson administration at Buckeye Boys State, estimating it would take $6,769,800 (in imaginary money) to operate the state, faced a possible battle over the budget today.

Federalist Gov. David Gibson of Warren was to submit the budget, prepared by Finance Director Tim Dix of Kent, to a Nationalist-dominated General Assembly.

Thus the teen-agers participating in the American Legion's annual self -government exercise were in another true-to-life situation as activities at the temporary state on the Ohio University campus progressed.

National Guard and Naval Reserve units of 130 boys each were organized under Adj. Gen. Alan Lawver of Louisville. His civil defense director appeared to be a good choice — James Mason of Wright-Patterson Air Force Base.

The 1,200-plus Boys State citizens, who heard FBI special agent Don Hanning of Washington, D.C., at Tuesday night's assembly, this evening are to hear talks by R. C. (Scotty) Young, lecturer on Americanism, and Thomas Cunningham of Steubenville, a West Point cadet and former Boys Stater.

Envelope Arrives, But No Diploma!

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It cost Western Reserve University $1.02 to send a very fancy envelope from Cleveland to Columbus. There was, however, supposed to be a diploma in it.

Stanley E. Rosewater of Columbus had just completed his first year of medical school at Ohio State University and, by virtue of this, also officially completed his four - year bachelor of science course at WRU.

The fancy envelope arrived Tuesday at the Rosewater household—but someone had forgotten to include the all-important sheepskin.

Lockport (Ill.) High School Wins National Band Honors

MASON CITY, Iowa (AP)—The Lockport, Ill., high school band, whose veteran director stresses musicianship, not showmanship, began a whirlwind 10-day tour today as national high school marching band champion.

Family Menu Challenges Homemaker

Feeding a family with varying body needs has been the homemaker's challenge since Jack Spratt and his wife licked their platter clean.

Ida Jean Kain

A modern mother faces this dilemma and writes:

"I would like very much to know if you have a diet that would suit both my husband and me in losing but not cause our four children to lose.

"I am 5 feet 4, weigh 180 pounds and am 31 years old. My husband is 5 feet 10, is 32 and weighs 210 pounds. My children are their ideal weights, I fix quite a few old - fashioned spicy foods. I would like to cut these out but I am afraid the children would lose too. Can you help us?"

Good! This mother knows the importance of "ideal weight" for the whole family and is looking for a way to achieve it.

LIFE IS NOT as rugged, physically, for us as it was for our grandparents. We quickly adapt to an easier way of living but cling to our inherited way of eating.

With the added temptation of an abundance of convenience foods —frozen, fresh and canned always in season — it takes real appetite discipline to even hold the weight line. Another complication is that our energy requirements diminish as we grow older. Unless we curb some of our acquired tastes, the pounds slowly creep on.

At first glance, it seems that the writer of today's letter is caught in a fix — parents trying to lose, children growing like mad, and everyone enjoying tasty foods. But it is possible to do all of this with the same menu.

The parents and the growing boys and girls need good quality protein, properly cooked vegetables, salads, milk, whole grain cereal and fruits. Build every meal around a good protein and foods rich in minerals and vitamins.

The basic requirements for theses do not vary much with age. Children need more for their size than adults so add another glass of milk for them. There will be a leeway then for the children to add any calories they may need in the form of potatoes, bread and simple dessert.

The children will not lose weight when the menus are less rich. Once protein requirements are met, their appetites will usually regulate what else they choose.

IN FAMILY recipes, look at the ingredients more closely. It's the excess fat, thickened gravies, cream sauces, sour cream etc. that are the culprits. Herbs, spices and seasonings only enhance natural flavor.

Do your family a favor, eliminate highly sweetened desserts for they only nourish the sweet tooth to haunt you later in life. Updating your menus will pay off in present and future dividends.

Prison Fugitive Held In Steubenville Case

STEUBENVILLE — Glenn Shelton Orren, a North Carolina prison escapee, was bound over to the Jefferson County Grand Jury Monday on charges of attempted breaking and entering of the Western Union office last Wednesday morning.

Orren, 41, was wounded and captured as he attempted to flee the scene of the attempted breaking and entering. He pleaded innocent to the charge, along with another for possession of burglary tools. Bond was set at $3,000 on each charge.

Orren was wounded by police gunfire as he and Gary Gotschal, 28, of Steubenville attempted to flee in an auto. Gotschal has been charged as a material witness and is free on his own recognizance.

Orren is reportedly one of 11 prisoners who escaped from the state prison at Raleigh May 11. He was serving a 7-10-year sentence for breaking and entering, safe robbery and possession of burglary tools, police said.

Suit Asks $109,535 For Fall In Weirton

NEW CUMBERLAND — Jessie H. Backel, 42, of Weirton has filed a $109,535.09 damage suit in Hancock County Circuit Court for injuries allegedly received in a fall Feb. 6, 1961 in Weirton.

Named as defendants are the City of Weirton, Weir-Cove Enterprises, and Ed McCauslen Florists. The suit contends the plaintiff slipped on ice caused by water dripping from an awning from the florist shop. McCauslen leases the storeroom on Main St. from Weir-Cove Enterprises.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Richer And Mellower

"Maybe I would have my ulcer operated on earlier, but otherwise I'd do everything the same way," says Ed Sullivan as he gets ready to begin his 15th year on TV next Sunday. If we rule out the inquisitive Lawrence Spivak and his "Meet the Press" program, Ed Sullivan is TV's champ distance runner.

Hal Humphrey

Spivak preceded Sullivan on the TV air by six months. For 14 years Ed has had everything thrown against him from cowboys to Donald Duck, yet none of it has made more than a dent on his granite chin.

-:-

Steve Allen and Ed had some bitter things to say about each other during the three years (1956-59) NBC tried to buck Sullivan with Allen on Sunday nights.

"They asked me if I could appear on Ed's show Sunday, and I said, 'Sure,'" Steve reports. (Actually he has pretaped the appearance here in Hollywood, but tape, film or live never was too well identified on a Sullivan show.)

Steve and Ed were fighting over who got which guest star and for what price long before Jack Paar challenged Ed to that debate which never came off.

The late Jimmy Dean was cause celebre for one Allen-Sullivan debacle, when each claimed to have prior rights to a show honoring Jimmy posthumously.

ON ANOTHER occasion, Ingrid Berman was to appear (via special film clip) on Ed's show, but sponsor pressure (Ed claims now) resulted in his dropping the controversial Swedish star. Later, Steve was happy to get an exclusive interview with La Bergman when she made a quick trip to New York.

Even his CBS teammate, Arthur Godfrey, rapped Ed for hiring on the spot everyone Godfrey fired off his show. In retaliation, Ed had some things to say about Godfrey and his apparent fall from the pinnacle of fame.

Frank Sinatra got into a hassle over a guest shot on Ed's show and took out hundreds of dollars worth of advertising in the trade papers so he could refer to Ed's psyche as "sick, sick, sick!"

"AT THE TIME, all of these things seemed very important," says Ed now, "but as the years go by, they don't seem important at all any more."

When one asks Ed to list what he considers the highlights of 14 years of the Ed Sullivan Show, he talks glowingly of the night in 1951 when Helen Hayes did her famous farewell scene from "Victoria Regina" and when Alfred Lunt rocked Ed's audience the same year with his gripping portrayal of Robert Sherwood's pacifist in a scene from "There Shall Be No Night."

Ed either has forgotten, or thinks it no longer is important, that he paid $50,000 to Elvis Presley for three appearances. This was after Steve had Elvis and beat Ed at the rating polls that Sunday.

On the second time around for Ed, however, Elvis was cut in half by the TV camera, because his lower half was objectionable to some viewers and a sensitive sponsor. Ed was happy to pay the price for half an Elvis.

WHAT ARE ED'S plans for the future? He'll keep right on going, of course, but his plans include bigger opportunities for young show business hopefuls.

"We're going to conduct talent contests in several cities every six weeks, beginning this fall," says Ed, "and the winners will appear on the show. The first one is set for Sept. 2."

Big names still will abound on Ed's shows, too, though, because he is showman enough to know what attracts a crowd.

Blind Boy Injured; Dog Guide Unharmed

WEIRTON — A blind Negro youth was hurt slightly and his seeing-eye dog "Dusty" escaped unharmed when they stepped into the path of a backing bakery truck Monday afternoon.

John R. Jackson, 15, suffered minor abrasions of both knees and elbows when struck by a Nickle's Bakery truck operated by Merle E. Hardy, 30, of New Cumberland.

Police said the youth, a junior at Weir High School, was crossing an alley when he stepped into the path of the backing truck. Hardy told police he did not see the boy or his dog.

The youngster was in "satisfactory" condition at Weirton General Hospital and was scheduled to be X-rayed.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Youths Need Guidance During Summer

Many parents living in suburbia or other outlying areas feel smugly content that their children have wide areas over which to roam during summer. Running loose for long periods, day after day, while the parents are home or away from home, children from four to 12 or older may face more moral hazards than physical hazards, some drifting into sex play and experimenting, the older children sometimes exploiting the younger. Wise parents are not so smug about the moral safety of their children. They make sure they know where their children are and the kind of activities they are engaged in.

YESTERDAY WE considered kinds of programs desirable for most children from six to 12 during the long summer days. Such programs are, obviously, the more desirable for children living near outlying areas, over which the children may seem to roam with safety.

Indeed, many children living in areas which seem most desirable, if wholly unsupervised, may face more moral dangers than children living in crowded urban areas. On the other hand, they may, if properly guided, have a wonderful place for good summer fun.

I don't wish to make parents unduly anxious about their children. I just want to have them face reality and not kid themselves that, since their children have so many apparently safe play places in summer, all will be well without their vigilance and sensible guidance.

Even areas which seem to be safe for play may have far more hazards than the parents ever suspected. Children long unsupervised tend to wander far beyond safe limits. There may be old buildings not so far away in which they might explore, or dump heaps, or abandoned quarries filled with deep water, or dangerous streams, especially after heavy rains.

DURING A PERIOD of a few hours several children, eager to explore, can wander away from the areas their parents consider safe. Furthermore, these children, led by a few older ones who have not learned to respect the possessions of other persons, can drift into the practice of destroying and appropriating property.

Wherever parents may live, they should want to know where their children are during any period of half an hour or more. Young parents do well to define limits beyond which their children must never go. Then control of where these children go as they grow older becomes more easy to enforce.

My bulletins, "Undesirable Sex Practices in Children" and "First Steps in Training Tot in Safety," may be had by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Gas, Calcium Chloride Offers Will Be Sought

Council gave unanimous approval Monday night to legislation authorizing Safety-Service Director Robert Owen to seek bids on a year's supply of motor fuel for city vehicles, along with 50,000 gallons of calcium chloride to be used in giving a second dust-laying treatment to unsurfaced streets.

The director also was authorized to contract for 15,000 gallons of gasoline, 500 gallons of motor oil, 1,000 gallons or diesel fuel and 200 gallons of hydraulic oil.

Rostow Faces Quiz On Foreign Policies

WASHINGTON (AP)—Walt W. Rostow probably will face sharp congressional questioning when the Senate Foreign Relations Committee examines a new survey of U.S. foreign policies.

Rostow heads the State Department's Policy Planning Council which has sent its foreign policy paper to the White House.

The document was under GOP attack even before its completion was announced Tuesday by State Department press officer Lincoln White. He tried to discount speculation about spectacular new ideas in the paper—especially any radical change in U.S. nuclear policy—and said Rostow would be glad to appear on Capitol Hill for a full and frank discussion of the survey.

Blind Boy Injured; Dog Guide Unharmed

WEIRTON — A blind Negro youth was hurt slightly and his seeing-eye dog "Dusty" escaped unharmed when they stepped into the path of a backing bakery truck Monday afternoon.

John R. Jackson, 15, suffered minor abrasions of both knees and elbows when struck by a Nickle's Bakery truck operated by Merle E. Hardy, 30, of New Cumberland.

Police said the youth, a junior at Weir High School, was crossing an alley when he stepped into the path of the backing truck. Hardy told police he did not see the boy or his dog.

The youngster was in "satisfactory" condition at Weirton General Hospital and was scheduled to be X-rayed.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Youths Need Guidance During Summer

Many parents living in suburbia or other outlying areas feel smugly content that their children have wide areas over which to roam during summer. Running loose for long periods, day after day, while the parents are home or away from home, children from four to 12 or older may face more moral hazards than physical hazards, some drifting into sex play and experimenting, the older children sometimes exploiting the younger. Wise parents are not so smug about the moral safety of their children. They make sure they know where their children are and the kind of activities they are engaged in.

YESTERDAY WE considered kinds of programs desirable for most children from six to 12 during the long summer days. Such programs are, obviously, the more desirable for children living near outlying areas, over which the children may seem to roam with safety.

Indeed, many children living in areas which seem most desirable, if wholly unsupervised, may face more moral dangers than children living in crowded urban areas. On the other hand, they may, if properly guided, have a wonderful place for good summer fun.

I don't wish to make parents unduly anxious about their children. I just want to have them face reality and not kid themselves that, since their children have so many apparently safe play places in summer, all will be well without their vigilance and sensible guidance.

Even areas which seem to be safe for play may have far more hazards than the parents ever suspected. Children long unsupervised tend to wander far beyond safe limits. There may be old buildings not so far away in which they might explore, or dump heaps, or abandoned quarries filled with deep water, or dangerous streams, especially after heavy rains.

DURING A PERIOD of a few hours several children, eager to explore, can wander away from the areas their parents consider safe. Furthermore, these children, led by a few older ones who have not learned to respect the possessions of other persons, can drift into the practice of destroying and appropriating property.

Wherever parents may live, they should want to know where their children are during any period of half an hour or more. Young parents do well to define limits beyond which their children must never go. Then control of where these children go as they grow older becomes more easy to enforce.

My bulletins, "Undesirable Sex Practices in Children" and "First Steps in Training Tot in Safety," may be had by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Gas, Calcium Chloride Offers Will Be Sought

Council gave unanimous approval Monday night to legislation authorizing Safety-Service Director Robert Owen to seek bids on a year's supply of motor fuel for city vehicles, along with 50,000 gallons of calcium chloride to be used in giving a second dust-laying treatment to unsurfaced streets.

The director also was authorized to contract for 15,000 gallons of gasoline, 500 gallons of motor oil, 1,000 gallons or diesel fuel and 200 gallons of hydraulic oil.

The administration customarily lets contracts for the fuel each summer.

Rostow Faces Quiz On Foreign Policies

WASHINGTON (AP)—Walt W. Rostow probably will face sharp congressional questioning when the Senate Foreign Relations Committee examines a new survey of U.S. foreign policies.

Rostow heads the State Department's Policy Planning Council which has sent its foreign policy paper to the White House.

The document was under GOP attack even before its completion was announced Tuesday by State Department press officer Lincoln White. He tried to discount speculation about spectacular new ideas in the paper—especially any radical change in U.S. nuclear policy—and said Rostow would be glad to appear on Capitol Hill for a full and frank discussion of the survey.

Strangers' Gifts Keep Orphaned Family Together

WARROAD, Minn. (AP) — The orphaned Foster family of nine children is happily bewildered today, but still together—thanks to the generosity of strangers.

When both of their parents died within a year, it looked as though the eight young Fosters remaining at the home here would have to move in with relatives.

Foster died last September from cancer, a year—almost to the day—after the same disease had claimed his wife.

But 20-year-old Rita, the oldest of the clan of nine brothers and sisters, quit her job in Minneapolis and came to Warroad last fall, determined that the family keep on "growing up together."

Her determination attracted attention of the Grand Forks, N.D. Herald, which made its story on the Fosters available to the Associated Press for national distribution, along with a family picture.

Touched by Rita's decision to take on this responsibility, the nation answered with nearly 2,000 letters containing some $4,000 in cash and gifts.

"I just don't understand it yet," says Rita. "Why, these people have never seen us, they never even heard of us before."

The family now lives on those official payments. The gift money remaining has been banked against future emergencies.

Methodist Group Affirms Church Right On Issues

LAKESIDE, Ohio (AP)—Superintendents of the eight districts of the North-East Ohio Conference of the Methodist Church have affirmed the church's right to relate religion to social, economic and political issues.

Dr. Charles Hamilton, superintendent of the Canton District, opened the annual conference Tuesday with the "State of the Church" message on behalf of the district superintendents.

The report expressed concern about individuals and organized groups "which want to silence ministers, publications and church agencies when they attempt to relate religion to social, economic and political concerns that affect our lives.

"When the right of ministers to speak truth as they believe God has given it to them is challenged, we have reached a late hour in the twilight of freedom," said Hamilton.

Roasting a duck? Simmer the neck and giblets with an onion, a carrot, some celery leaves, a few allspice and peppercorns and a bay leaf; strain the broth and use for making a thin gravy to serve with the bird. Grated orange rind added to the gravy will give a delightful flavor.

Trucker Fined As Bottles Spill

A Steubenville trucker whose load of soft drink bottles and cases spilled onto a passing car Monday night at 7:35 north of Weirton was fined $10 and costs at a hearing at a hearing later before Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.

Hancock County sheriff's deputies said the load of soft drink bottles and cases spilled from the truck onto the 1955 model sedan of Frances Naomi Gehring, 46, of New Cumberland, as the truck rounded a curve north of Weirton.

The New Cumberland woman's car was scratched by glass and dented by the cases, and glass fragments from the broken bottles punctured her tires, deputies said.

Then a north - bound station wagon driven by David Alan, 28, of New Cumberland passed by and the car's tires were also punctured by the glass fragments.

Strangers' Gifts Keep Orphaned Family Together

WARROAD, Minn. (AP) — The orphaned Foster family of nine children is happily bewildered today, but still together—thanks to the generosity of strangers.

When both of their parents died within a year, it looked as though the eight young Fosters remaining at the home here would have to move in with relatives.

Foster died last September from cancer, a year—almost to the day—after the same disease had claimed his wife.

But 20-year-old Rita, the oldest of the clan of nine brothers and sisters, quit her job in Minneapolis and came to Warroad last fall, determined that the family keep on "growing up together."

Her determination attracted attention of the Grand Forks, N.D. Herald, which made its story on the Fosters available to the Associated Press for national distribution, along with a family picture.

Touched by Rita's decision to take on this responsibility, the nation answered with nearly 2,000 letters containing some $4,000 in cash and gifts.

"I just don't understand it yet," says Rita. "Why, these people have never seen us, they never even heard of us before."

The family now lives on those official payments. The gift money remaining has been banked against future emergencies.

Methodist Group Affirms Church Right On Issues

LAKESIDE, Ohio (AP)—Superintendents of the eight districts of the North-East Ohio Conference of the Methodist Church have affirmed the church's right to relate religion to social, economic and political issues.

Dr. Charles Hamilton, superintendent of the Canton District, opened the annual conference Tuesday with the "State of the Church" message on behalf of the district superintendents.

The report expressed concern about individuals and organized groups "which want to silence ministers, publications and church agencies when they attempt to relate religion to social, economic and political concerns that affect our lives.

"When the right of ministers to speak truth as they believe God has given it to them is challenged, we have reached a late hour in the twilight of freedom," said Hamilton.

Roasting a duck? Simmer the neck and giblets with an onion, a carrot, some celery leaves, a few allspice and peppercorns and a bay leaf; strain the broth and use for making a thin gravy to serve with the bird. Grated orange rind added to the gravy will give a delightful flavor.

Trucker Fined As Bottles Spill

A Steubenville trucker whose load of soft drink bottles and cases spilled onto a passing car Monday night at 7:35 north of Weirton was fined $10 and costs at a hearing at a hearing later before Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.

Gerald G. Dickinson, 30, a driver for a Pepsi-Cola outlet in Dover, was charged with driving with defective equipment in not having doors covering the load on his truck.

Hancock County sheriff's deputies said the load of soft drink bottles and cases spilled from the truck onto the 1955 model sedan of Frances Naomi Gehring, 46, of New Cumberland, as the truck rounded a curve north of Weirton.

The New Cumberland woman's car was scratched by glass and dented by the cases, and glass fragments from the broken bottles punctured her tires, deputies said.

Then a north - bound station wagon driven by David Alan, 28, of New Cumberland passed by and the car's tires were also punctured by the glass fragments.

A contribution of $50 was also authorized for the post auxiliary to send two youngsters to a VFW camp near Ripley July 15-22.

QUESTION: How is gasoline made?

ANSWER: The story is told in our picture. Many million years ago the warm seas swarmed with tiny plants and animals (A). These died and decomposed. Over the ages their bodies were buried under accumulated layers of sediment. Some of this plant and animal matter turned into the heavy black liquid we call petroleum. Some petroleum deposits lie under the sea floor, but in many cases there is land now where there once was sea, and so it is possible to drill down and reach petroleum layers under the dry ground. In (B) we see the black layer of petroleum, or crude oil, with a well pipe going down into it. It is pumped up into storage tanks and the crude oil sent through a processing plant, where it is seperated into gasoline, fuel oil, coke, asphalt, road oil, kerosene and lubricants. These are the products which power and lubricate our cars and machinery and which have made our modern age (C) possible.

FOR YOU TO DO: See if you can find out about how many gallons of each of the products we mentioned would come from a hundred gallons of crude oil. We'll give you a hint. There would be about 44 gallons of gasoline.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I just read the letter from the woman who can't get her husband to go anywhere. Well, it's too bad her husband can't stay home with my wife.

Six years ago I married a girl who is now 27. I am 29 — so you can see we aren't exactly old folks.

My wife won't take a vacation because she has 191 house plants. Our home is like a miniature jungle. She has every imaginable kind of fern and crawling ivy potted in urns, bottles, buckets, crocks and what have you.

She says she can't leave the house even for a weekend, because the plants must be watered in a special way. Also they must be rotated so they will receive the right amount of sunlight.

We haven't had a vacation since our honeymoon. I'm not the type who enjoys going off alone. Am I a fool? If my wife won't take a vacation with me this summer, should I go fishing alone? I need your advice. — JUNGLE FEVER.

Dear Jungle Fever: Tell your wife to line up a plant-sitter. If she refuses, leave her home with the fern and let her rotate the urns to her heart's content. You, my friend, should go fishing — without her.

Chaperoned Date

Dear Ann: I'm 18 and crazy about a girl who is 16. She is a real doll, Ann — sweet and pretty — and her disposition is sunny all the time. The trouble is her folks won't let her go out unless her 17-year-old sister has a date and comes along.

Her sister is a compulsive eater. This means she eats too much because she has a problem. I think it's probably the other way around, — she has a problem because she eats too much.

My buddies have been swell about helping out. They have fed this elk till they're flat broke. Now I have run out of buddies.

Last Saturday I had to take the elk to the movies, too, because I couldn't get a date for her and I wanted to be with my girl.

Dear Crowd: No, it isn't fair. An older person should speak to your girl's parents in behalf of both their daughters.

It's generous to help out a sister whenever possible, but getting her a date should not be the price you must pay for permission to go out. And the overweight girl needs a doctor more than she needs dates.

Disgusting Advice

Dear Ann: I was never so disgusted in all my life as when I read your advice to the girl who was separated from her husband and asked you if it was all right to go out with men.

You said, "No — you are still married." You must be nuts. Her husband is still married, too, but I'll bet he isn't living like a monk.

I am 24 years old and have been separated from my jerk for three years. Getting a divorce in Canada is like trying to figure out what the Russians are going to do next.

I'm caught in that well-known trap — legally married to a man who has a girl friend on the side. He doesn't have to marry her as long as he's married to me. So what am I supposed to do while he pulls every trick in the book — shrivel up and die?

Some of your advice sounds mighty noble on paper, but it's a lot easier to write it than to live by it. So why don't you stop being so smug and puritanical? —MAPLE LEAF.

Dear Maple: I never said it was easy to sit home and sweat out a divorce. The question was, "Should a woman who is still legally married accept dates?" The answer was, and is, "No — not if you value your reputation."

A girl of 24 isn't in imminent danger of shriveling up and dying if she passes up dates until she is no longer married.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self - addressed envelope.

Hancock To Get New State Roadside Park

Workers of the West Virginia State Highway Department have started construction of a new roadside park along Route 66 in Hancock County between Newell and New Cumberland.

Land is being cleared at the site on a high bluff overlooking the Ohio River, the new Stratton superdam, and the Ohio Edison Co. power plant.

The view from the area is expected to be one of the most scenic in the state. The land has been leased by the state from Crescent Brick Co. in New Cumberland.
